 Ireland by mistake on January 1 and 2.

MR. GEORGE FROST, PORTARINE.

The death of Mr. George Frost, which took place on the 4th inst. at his residence, Portdrine, Cratloe, removes one who was a figure familiar not only in his native Clare but throughout the surrounding counties.

An extensive and practical farmer, he was recognised as a keen judge of cattle-stock over a period of practically sixty years, and his advice on such matters was much in demand and ever freely given. In failing health for some time back, the deceased gentleman peacefully passed to his reward at the fine old age of 80.

The remains were removed to Cratloe Parish Church on Sunday, and thence to Mount St. Laurence Cemetery on the following day. The attendance at the funeral bore ample testimony of the esteem in which the late Mr. Frost was held by all classes. May he rest in peace!

The following clergy were present:—
 Rev. P. Enright, C.C., Broadford, Co.
 Limerick; Rev. G. Enright, C.C., Kilfinny, County Limerick (nephews); Rev.
 C. O'Sullivan, P.P., Cratloe; Rev. J. J.
 Wallace, P.P., Kildimo; Rev. J. Liston, Diocesan Examiner; Rev. T. Costelloe, C.C., St. Mary's.

Chief mourners—Solomon and Thomas Frost (brothers); Mrs. D. Enright, Mrs.
 E. Quin (sisters); Mrs. S. Frost (sister-in-law), George, Paddy, Robert and Michael Frost, Cratloe; Patrick Frost, Limerick; James Frost, Clenagh; John, Patrick and Dan Enright, Cratloe; John and Patrick Gleeson, Clondrina; George Gleeson, Limerick; Dr. M. Graham and Patrick Graham, Limerick; Michael Graham, Coonagh; Colman and Patrick Quin, Cappa (nephews); Misses Annie, Josie, Mary and Teresa Frost, Cratloe; Miss Margaret Enright, Cratloe; Miss Frances Quin, Cappa; Mrs. McNamara, Shelbourne; Mrs. Mitchell, Hospital; Miss Clare Frost, Limerick (nieces).

It would be altogether impossible to give the names of other relatives and sympathisers.

Rev. T. Enright officiated at the graveside.

Mass cards were sent by the following —Solomon Frost and family; Mrs.
 Enright and family; George Frost; Dan Enright; Michael Graham and family;
 James Frost and family; George Gleeson and family; Patrick Gleeson; John Gleeson and family.
