

Messrs. Hayes Bros., do.;
20 Upper William St.; Mr.
Upper William St.; Mr.
M. Costello, Assembly Mall;
ell, Clare St.; Mr. Murphy, re; Miss Nunan, Mulgrave St.
Doherty, Clare St.
Mrs. O'Neill, Fair Green; Mr.
townmahon.

LIMERICK COMMITTEE OF AGRICULTURE.

FOOD PRODUCTION.

on Vegetable Cultivation and ving will be given by Mr. P. J.
horticultural Instructor, askenry Library on January
at 7 p.m. (old time).
gh School on January 17th,
p.m. (old time).
gh School on January 24th,
p.m. (old time).
yfeale School on January 27th,
p.m. (old time).
ncollogher School on January
at 7 p.m. (old time).
agea School on February 7th,
p.m. (old time).
etown School on February 10th,
p.m. (old time).
School on February 14th, 1941,
(old time).
Mr. J. J. Hennerty, Horticultructor,
na Hall on January 15th, 1941,
(old time).
ertstown Hall on January 22nd,
p.m. (old time).
roe School on January 29th,
p.m. (old time).
School on February 5th, 1941,
(old time).
teriffe School on February 12th,
p.m. (old time).
ally School on February 19th,
p.m. (old time).
residing in the Districts where tures are to be held are cor-ited to attend.

SON, Chief Agricultural Officer,
82 O'Connell Street, Limerick.

LIMERICK COUNTY COUNCIL.

REGULATIONS (PUBLIC WORKS) REGULATIONS, 1925.

CONSTRUCTION OF LEVEL CROSSING AT LISNAGRY.

of Road from Limerick to h via Birdhill at Lisnagry Level Crossing. s hereby given that the Minister Government and Public Health
n Order made under Section 29 cal Government Act, 1925, dated day of January, one thousand dred and forty-one, Closed the n Limerick to Nenagh via Bird snagry Level Crossing.
for which Road is to be Closed—
h January, 1941, to the 27th 1941, (inclusive).

family; Mr. and Mrs. Kelly and family;
Kathleen Keane; Tommy Andrews; Mrs.
Dillon; Eileen O'Driscoll; Jane McCarthy; Mary, Bridie and Nellie Kennedy; Sean and Monnie Mallen; Teresa Sheehan; M. and Mrs. Daly (Newport), Norah and Joe Lyons.

MR. P. LEAHY, KNOCKERAVELLA.

Deep regret was caused by the death of Patrick Leahy, which occurred on 28th December, at his residence, Knockeravella, Pallasgreen, Co. Limerick.

Deceased was very popular in the district, as was evidenced by the concourse of people which attended the funeral. He was father of Rev. E. Leahy, O.D.C., International College, Rome; Sr. M. de Chantal, Convent of Mercy, Limerick; Sr.
M. Gerald, Sr. M. de Jesu, St. Paul's Convent, Selly Park, Birmingham.

The remains were removed to Temple-braden Church on Sunday, the 29th December. Interment took place the following day in Emly, after Office and High Mass.

The following priests were present:—
Rev. Father Ryan, P.P., Nicker; Rev.
Father Kinane, C.C., do.; Rev. Dr.
Slattery, P.P., Lattin; Rev. Father Cahill,
C.C., do.; Rev. Father McElligott, P.P., Kilteely; Rev. Father Bannon, C.C., do.;
Rev. Father Aidan, O.D.C., Gayfield, Dublin; and Rev. Father Leahy, P.P., Bulga-den.

The chief mourners were Daniel Leahy
(son), Thomas, Denis and Daniel Leahy (brothers); Mrs. J. Breen (sister); Mrs.
Leahy (sister-in-law), and friends too numerous to mention.

MISS MARY QUILTY.

Ex-pupils of St. Anne's Convent Schools, Rathkeale, wherever their lot is cast, will learn with regret of the death of Miss Mary Quilty, which occurred early on Sunday morning, the 5th inst. A familiar and kindly figure at St. Anne's for over 50 years, more than five school generations passed through her hands.
Although Mary had no official recognition, under either the old or new regime of education, nevertheless she was to all intents and purposes a member of the infant room staff. What more important than teaching, lispings babes their prayers and who could do it with more fervour and piety than Mary Quilty.
Hers was the rock-like simple faith of the type so well portrayed by Canon Sheehan in one of his characters in the "Blindness of Dr. Grey," and now that she is gone, I am sure that those to whom Mary taught their earliest prayers will not forget to say one that she may gain her eternal reward.

The remains were removed to St.
Mary's Church, Rathkeale, on Sunday evening and the funeral was held to the New Cemetery, Rathkeale, on Monday.
The officiating clergy were Rev. P. C.
Lynch, C.C., and Rev. T. Costello, C.C.

FOR "In Memoriam" and all classe

Josie, Mary and Miss Margaret Enright;
Frances Quin, Cappa; M.
Shelbourne; Mrs. Mitchell Clare Frost, Limerick (n
It would be altogether give the names of other sympathisers.
Rev. T. Enright off
graveside.
Mass cards were sent Solomon Frost and
Enright and family; Geo
Enright; Michael Graba
James Frost and family;
and family; Patrick Gleeson and family.

MR. P. O'BRIEN, WOLFE TONE STREET, LIMERICK.

The passing of an old citizen is a matter of re-one who has been intinwith the life of Limerick fifty years. We refer to t
"Pat" O'Brien, which too in the fulness of years a 68 Wolfe Tone Street; I protracted illness.

"Pat" as he was fa-
was a man of many parts fine qualities of head an charm of manner all his great favourite with all Mr. O'Brien was a life-
the Limerick City Guild and a Diamond Jubilee Confraternity of the Holy

For many years prior t he held the responsible man for Messrs. D. O'Sulwell-known Limerick buil-
As a skilled craftsman h in matters peculiar to his advice was much va-needed it. He will be l by the older members Temperance Society and his long connection and rendered over many year

A wonderful tribute to manifest in the huge coof all classes who atten-which took place to Mou-Cemetery, and fully exp-pathy felt for the family
the deceased in their bet

The chief mourners we Paddy, Tom James and Mrs. Stackpool and (daughters), Paddy and Gerard and Freddie Ho-Dick, Tom, Joe, Malcolm
and Anthony O'Brien (G-Jack O'Brien, Mrs. Tom
Willie O'Brien, Mrs. Ger-
Mrs. James O'Brien (G-Mr. Fred Hourigan and pool (sons-in-law), Mrs.
in-law), Mr. Stephen Ho-law), Tom, Paddy, F.
O'Brien (nephew), P.
Patricia Hourigan, E.
Peggy, Ann and Margat
(grand-daughters).