PALLAS AND DISTRICT CITY

(From Our Correspondent).

The Fair.

The annual New Year's Fair was held on Wednesday of last week. There was a small attendance and a complete clearance was effected. The fair was good in the disposal of "strippers" but was not comparable in size or attendance with the great November event.

Recent Death.

A very highly respected resident passed to his eternal reward on New Year's morning in the person of Mr. Edward O'Dwyer, of Garrison, Pallasgreen. Deceased had reached a fine age, but was not in failing health nor had he complained up to the very last when death came suddenly and unexpectedly to cause great shock and profound regret to his sisters and many relatives and friends.

Admirable Qualities.

Deceased was a man of many admirable qualities, quiet and unassuming in manner, gentle as a child and yet firm and untiring in the care of his home and lands. He spent his years in the quiet and peace of his sheltered homestead until having reached the fulness of years God called him home.

The Obsequies.

There was a very large and representative attendance at the obsequies. Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. E. Kinnane, C.C. The funeral took place to the family burial place at Doon.

National Defence.

A number of local young men were home from Army training to spend the New Year with their families and friends. The members of the local Defence Force are attending at their training quarters twice weekly. Rifle practice is being keenly carried on and there are several crack shots amongst the men. A very successful practice dance is held by the members on Sunday nights.

Doon Dramatic Class.

On the night of January 6th the Doon Dramatic Class held a very successful concert in the Brook Hall. Two dramas, "Tit-for-Tat" and "The New Maid" were staged by the company. The entertainment attracted a large attendance and was most enjoyable.

Annual Dance.

Doon Hurling Club held their annual dance in the Brook Hall on St. Stephen's night. There was a very large attendance and patrons enjoyed a very good night's dancing. The catering was in the capable hands of the Ladies' Committee and the music was supplied by Tuohy's
