WEDDING MARRIAGE

ard I. Fitzgerald, who has the management of the Wilt Branch of the Provincial Limerick, is a Galbally man 28 years service in the Pron his early days he was o the Galway and Tralee in both of which he attained al of local popularity. Later, r at Dingle and Castleisland, rity, due to his courtesy and ontinued. Formerly a mem-cannot be tolerated. In view of what the Superintendent has said I will endorse the licence in respect of the Christmas Day charge only, but if this woman values her licence she will be more careful.

Superintendent—If she is convicted again I will press for an endorsement.
This house could be caught any night of the week. I know that myself, so she had better be careful.

Justice—I have already issued a warning, and I want all concerned to understand that I do not issue warnings to have them ignored.

JAIL FOR SHOPLIFTING.

Patricia Mullane, no fixed address, was charged in custody with shop lifting.

Sergeant Griffin stated that the defendant stole a pair of boots and other articles from a shop and pawned them.
She was an old hand at shop-lifting, and no sooner was she out of jail than she began stealing again. Her husband was at present completing a sentence of twelve months for robbery.

Justice—This is a hopeless case. I have given this woman every chance. On the present charge she will go to jail for 3 months.

A SPLENDID TYPE

DEATH OF MR. JOHN CAHILL, KILDIMO

With the deepest sorrow we announce the death of Mr. John Cahill, Kildimo, who passed away in St. John's Hospital, Limerick, yesterday, 16th inst. The deceased, who had reached a fine old age, was in every sense a splendid type of Irishman. Of a naturally cheerful disposition, he was always in good humour and was a most entertaining conversationalist. He was for several years a member of the Rathkeale Board of Guardians and District Council and in his public capacity, as in private life, he enjoyed, as he deserved, the fullest confidence and respect of all classes and sections. An ardent and thoroughly sincere Nationalist all his life, he gave unstinted support to every movement calculated, in his opinion, to advance the country and the interests of the people.
He enjoyed an exceedingly wide measure of popularity and all who knew him intimately regarded him in the highest esteem for his numerous good qualities.
To his bereaved family, relatives and friends we extend our very sincere sympathy. The funeral will leave Kildimo Church for Mellon at 1 p.m. (old time) to-morrow (Saturday).

SHIPS IN THE SHANNON

In the Dail yesterday Mr. M. J. Keyes, T.D., dealing with artificial manures, said there were two ships with cargoes corn gathered in Limerick hear their Organising Secre-
