Whether it was to help to raise funds to erect a curate's residence, the repair of a schoolhouse, or to provide the where-withal in the case of a less fortunate fellow-being whom death had deprived of the bread-winner, "Lily" could always be relied upon to give her services gladly and willingly. She was never so happy as when helping in some deserving cause, evidently anxious to share with and extend to others the happiness which was her own well-deserved lot. No party of which she was one could be other-wise than joyous, because she was ever of a contented, happy and generous out-look. Ordinarily it would be hard for one of her youthful age to face death, but in her case she accepted the Divine Command and resigned herself to the Will of God as only a true Catholic can. She had all the consolations of Holy Church, of which she was an exemplary member. To her sorrowing husband and mother and other members of her family sincere sympathy is extended.

The remains were removed to St. Michael's Church on Friday, 3rd inst., and on the following morning, after Requiem Mass, the funeral took place to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, accom-panied by an immense concourse of sym-pathisers. It would be impossible to give anything like a complete list of the general public in attendance, but every section of the citizens was represented.

MRS. M. CROWLEY, MEENAHOLA.

The death of Mrs. Michael Crowley, of Meenahely, Abbeyfeale, occurring so un-expectedly at the age of 39, came as a shock to her bereaved husband and the other respected members of her family (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent). Married only a couple of years and taken in the prime of life, adds poignancy to the bereavement. Her death is much regretted by numerous friends and rela-tives, as well as the public, who attended the funeral and interment in the Abbey Cemetery in such large numbers.

The prayers at the graveside were read by the Very Rev. T. Canon Hogan, P.P. V.F.; Rev. J. Houlihan, C.C., and Rev. W. J. Meade, C.C.

Chief mourners were:—Mr. Michael Crowley (husband), Mr. Dan Fitzgerald (brother), Mrs. Jeremiah Collins, Lime-rick, and Mrs. Aherne, Raheenagh (sisters), Mary Crowley, Mrs. Denis Stack, Tour, and Mrs. Cotter (sisters-in-law).
