M FOR WAGES

Limerick Action

—oo—

HASE OF A BICYCLE

astle West Civil Bill Court on fore Mr. C. S. Kenny, B.L.,

tin, Garbally, Kilmeedy, sued Dore, Ahawilk, Kilmeedy, for . balance of wages due and of contract.

F. Noonan, solicitor (Messrs. ton and Co., solicitors) ap- the plaintiff, and Mr. R. J. licitor, appeared for the dein reply to Mr. Noonan, Messrs. P. T. Liston and Co., appeared for the plaintiff, and Cussen, solicitor, appeared for ant.

in reply to Mr. Noonan, said ndant hired her for nine March last. She was to re- at the end of the period. as to do the usual work and ith Miss Dore until the 15th hen defendant came and told ear out and that she was a efendant had told her to leave mes previously but witness eed of her. Witness asked for when leaving but defendant o give her any. Witness only 3 on foot of her agreement— ges and the remaining £1 was defendant on witness's behalf who had sold her a bicycle, when dismissing her gave her for doing so.

NESS CROSS-EXAMINED.

y to Mr. Cussen, witness said ed for defendant from the 2nd til October 15th. She admitted e defendant for money time but she did not get any. She ed getting a bag of oats from but she could not recollect t of it now.

y to further questions, witness drawing 1/- now and again. It rue to say that she left on the st and did not return until the t month. She received her first -1/2—in April and witness spent unt on a dance. She admitted further small payments in April ssen said that according to his ook she had paid wages to the f £8 13s. 8d. to the plaintiff.

ing her evidence, witness said ot receive a substantial payment

FOYNES AND DISTRICT

(From Our Correspondent).

Inspector of Income Tax.

We offer our hearty congratulations to Mr. James Sheehan, fourth son of Mr. Daniel Sheehan and the late Mrs. Sheehan, Foynes, on securing his final examination, thereby becoming an Inspector of Income Tax. This is a very stiff test but his ability to assimilate knowledge has been proved ere this. He won a scholarship to St. Flannan's College, Ennis, from Foynes National School, and whilst there he won another on the Intermediate Certificate Examination. He entered the Civil Service as a clerical officer, and although he is still on the right side of thirty he has reached the summit of his profession.

* * *

Death of Mr. M. Danaher.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Michael Danaher, Corgrigg, Foynes, which took place on Monday, January 6th, after a severe illness. For years past his health had not been the best, and it could all be traced to his having been gassed in France during the last Great War. On Tuesday evening the remains were removed to Foynes Church and at noon the next day the funeral, which was representative of all sections, took place to Knockpatrick Cemetery. The officiating clergy were Very Rev. Canon Rea, P.P., V.F., Shanagolden, and Rev. Father Quinlan, C.C., Foynes.

* * *

Death of Mrs. C. Courtney.

The death of Mrs. Cornelius Courtney, Knocknaboola, Loughill, aged 57 years, took place at her residence in the early hours of Saturday morning, the 11th inst. The recent 'flu epidemic played havoc with any who had not been in the best of health for some time before it. Widespread sympathy was felt for her husband, Mr. "Con" Courtney, who is a very popular figure in the agricultural life of the country for miles around, and with her sons, Patrick and James. She came of a very well-known family herself, too, being sister of Mr. John Reidy and Mr. Maurice Reidy, both of Shanagolden. Early on Sunday morning the remains were brought to Loughill Church, where Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Noonan, O.P., Cork. At noon the funeral, which was a wonderful tribute of sympathy and respect, took place to the family burial ground at Knockpatrick. The officiating clergy were Rev. Father Ryan, P.P., Ballyhahill, and Rev. Father McDonnell, C.C., do. Mass cards were sent by Con and children; Harry and family; Michael McNamara and family; Michael and Josie Finucane; John and Kate Taylor.

* * *

MARKET PL

Breadstuffs—Retail flour, bakers, 53/6 per sack; w per sack; white bran, £12 pollard, £12 per ton.

LIMERICK MARKETS

Butter—1s. 7d. per lb.
Hen Eggs—2s. to 2s. 6d
Duck Eggs—2s. to 2s. 6
Chickens—7s. to 10s. pe
Ducks—5s. to 6s. per pa
Old Fowl—4s. 6d. to 6s.
Apples—4s. to 4s. 6d. pe
Cooking Apples—4/- to Potatoes—9d. to 11d. pe
Turnips—40s. per ton.
Rye Hay—62s. 6d. to 65
Upland Hay—35s. to 57
Corcass Hay—20s. to 32
Oaten Straw—30s. to 55
White Oats—1s. 7d. per Weekly Cattle Market—calves in market; they so to 90s. each.

TURNING UP

—oo—

CASTLETOWN PL

CONTEST

Twenty-four ploughme Limerick and adjoinin North Cork took part in tests at Gortroe, Cast Limerick, on Tuesday O'Connor, Wexford, all pion in 1937, who judge tions, was presented wit welcome by Mr. E. Kea behalf of the Castletown sociation.

After the contests, Mr that the ploughing was seen in Wexford. For of championships he had ing improvement in th Limerick men, and, judg standard at Castletown. Limerick ploughmen w hurling team, win the pionship this year.

All the winners in t members of the Local D is Mr. O'Connor, the jud ter, Agricultural Instru supervisor.

The awards were as f . Open Class—1, J. C Ballygran; 2, J. Kenny P. Sheehan, Belville; Ballingarry; 5, J. C derry.

Novice Class—1, P.