possessed of a wonderful memory. The funeral took place on Friday to the family burial ground at Kilgullane, and it was of very large dimensions, thus truly reflecting on the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Rev. Father McCarthy, P.P., Ballindangan, assisted by Rev. Father Corkery, C.C., do.; officiated at the graveside.

North Cork Convention.

The Gaels of North Cork assembled on last Sunday at Doneraile and re-elected as their Chairman for 1941 the old reliable from Castletownroche, Mr. Dan McHugh, who is a well-known Gael. Dan McHugh steered the affairs of the division safely about eight years ago and it is indeed but a fitting tribute to him to again elect him in such a responsible position. The divisional representatives appointed were Messrs. Hanley and Barrett. The local F.C. was represented by Messrs. J. J. Barrett and D. J. Lyons and the H.C. by Messrs Sean Keane, M.C.C. and P. J. O'Brien.

KILFINANE ITEMS

(From Our Correspondent)

Tillage Operations.

Owing to unfavourable weather conditions, tillage operations have been somewhat impeded. A fair share of land has been sown, and, judging by the acreage already ploughed, it looks like this year a considerable increase in tillage will result. Lands which have been in living memory have never before been broken by the plough are now being broken by farmers in general appear only willing to comply, as far as possible, with the tillage regulations.

L.S.F. Dance.

The most successful dance yet held in this district came off at the Martinstown Section of the The Hall was gaily decorated for the occasion, and nothing was left unattended to. The capable and experienced committee in charge to cater for the comfort and enjoyment of those who patronized the event. The arrangements were of the highest order and could be desired, and the committee members be congratulated upon the excellent manner in which they handled the large crowd present. Kilfinane's lead band, personally conducted by Fitzelle, gave a first-class musical programme.

The Hiring Season.

The hiring or making of agreements between farmers and their labourers generally takes place here from the beginning of January until the 1st of March. So far it is stated that the rate of wages is a little higher than the rate of last season.

Severe Frost.

What was regarded as one of the severest frosts for many years experienced in this locality for a few weeks. The new year was ushered in by a small fall of snow.
