At noon the funeral, which was of very large proportions, took place to the family burial ground at Kilmoylan. The chief mourners were—Rev. J. Moran, James, John and Dan (sons); Miss Catherine Moran, Mrs. D. Mangan, Crecora, Limerick, and Mrs. D. Danagher, Muckross Estate, Killarney (daughters). Rev. J. Moran read the prayers at the graveside.

MRS. FITZGERALD, SHRULAWN.

We regret to announce the death of

Church in her last death, therefore, is kept alive by the members of a large circle of relatives who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. She was one of the habitants of the "Bride" member of a highly respected family. Of a kindly and genial nature, she endeared herself to all who knew her in the district, where she was looked upon as the "sna" link with the past. In her circle she proved herself a most affectionate and kind mother, to be sorely missed by the family. She was mother of Reddan, the esteemed and respected President of the of the Distributive Workers, whom the sympathy of the community is extended to.
After the celebration of Mass the funeral took place at one o'clock (old time) at the Parish Church to the burial ground, Ballysheen. It followed the remains in proportions despite the weather, mourners and near to pay their respect to the deceased her family. Some beautiful Mass cards were laid on the table, furnished with eloquent expressions of affection in which the was held.

The Rev. Father Barry presided by Rev. Father Lynch at the graveside.
