L. O'DONNELL, County Secretary,
11 Street, Limerick.

1941.
L. O'DONNELL,

Mrs. Nora Madigan (nee Condon), whose death occurred at her residence, the Imperial Hotel, Rathkeale, on Friday, the 24th inst., belonged to a highly respected and widely connected family, members of which figured prominently in public life in former years. A woman of gentle disposition she had many virtues that gained the admiration of those who knew her. She was the mother of Mr. Michael Madigan, a well known figure in G.A.A. circles for many years.

Large Funeral.

The remains were removed to St. Mary's Church, Rathkeale, on Saturday evening and the funeral, which was extremely large and representative, took place to the New Cemetery on Sunday. The officiating clergy were—Very Rev. Canon Mangan, P.P., V.F.; Rev. E. Punch, P.P.; Rev. M. O'Brien, P.P.; Rev. P. C. Lynch, C.C.; Rev. T. Costello, C.C.; Rev. J. O'Byrne, C.C.; Rev. J. Finn, C.C.; and Rev. M. Kelly, C.C.

Familiar Figure Gone.

Mr. Maurice Roche, who died at the County Hospital, Croom, on the 24th inst., after a brief illness, was a familiar figure in Rathkeale town. A man who was of quiet and inoffensive disposition, his passing was mentioned with many expressions of kindest sympathy by those who knew him. The remains were brought to St. Mary's Church, Rathkeale, on Friday evening and the funeral took place to the New Cemetery, Rathkeale, on Saturday. The officiating clergy were—Very Rev. Canon Mangan, P.P., V.F.; Rev. P. C. Lynch, C.C.; Rev. T. Costello, C.C., and Rev. J. O'Byrne, C.C.

Mr. Brian Scanlan.

Mr. Brian Scanlan, Rathkeale, who passed to his reward on Saturday, the 25th inst., had reached a good age. A man with a kind and amiable disposition, he was very popular with all classes in the town. In his early years he travelled much and could be very interesting. When in a reminiscent mood he would relate some of his experiences abroad. He was the father of Mr. P. Scanlan, now in the U.S.A., who was active with the I.R.A. during the Anglo-Irish struggle. The remains were removed to St. Mary's Church, Rathkeale, on Sunday and the funeral took place to the New Cemetery, Rathkeale, on Monday. The officiating clergy were—Very Rev. Canon Mangan, P.P., V.F.; Rev. P. C. Lynch, C.C., and Rev. T. Costello, C.C.

Mr. Thomas Cregan.

Mr. Thomas Cregan, who died at his residence, Bank Place, Rathkeale, early on Sunday morning, the 26th inst., was another well known and popular Rathkeale man of old stock in this town. The remains were removed to St. Mary's Church, Rathkeale, on Sunday evening. The funeral took place to the New Cemetery, Rathkeale, on Monday. The officiating clergy were—Very Rev. Canon McCarthy, P.P.; Rev. Father Power, C.C.; Rev. P. J. Gerald, C.C.; Herbertstown; Rev. Kennedy, C.C.; Knocklong; Rev. Kelly, England. The attendance at graveside was of large proportions and reflected the popularity of the deceased gentleman, whose death was met with widespread sympathy extending to his relatives.

Late Mr. Thomas Hogan.

The death also took place at the residence of Mr. Thomas Hogan, brother of Mr. Hogan, Clashmore. A young man, whom it may be said that was an outstanding example of the triumph of the spirit over physical disability, during several years of illness, his gaiety of temperament, sunny and cheerful manner were evidence of his health. A kindly lovable personality, with a ready wit and high personality, he was exceptional in his way with all who knew him, while his and cheerful way in which he met self even to the end under the health evoked the admiration of his death at an early age was sorely grieved in the town and parish. His death was unstinted sympathy extended to his relatives on the sad occasion. The funeral, which took place in the New Cemetery, was attended by a large representative of all classes in the district. R.I.P.
