KILFINANE ITEMS

(From Our Correspondent).

Obituary.

It is with sincere regret we record the death of Mr. David O'Connell, proprietor, Doherty's Hotel, Kilfinane, which sad event took place at his residence recently. Deceased, who had reached an advanced age, was formerly a member of Limerick County Council, and was for a number of years manager of the Ardpatrick Co-Operative Creamery Co.

Greatly Esteemed.

Deceased was well-known and greatly esteemed and respected over a wide area in which he did business. His integrity and uprightness secured for him the esteem and respect of all who knew him.

Five in Religion.

Five members of his family of six entered the religious life. Two sons are Rev. D. J. O'Connell, P.P., Chipping, Campden, Gloucestershire, and Rev. Mr. A. O'Connell, S.J., a student at Milltown Park, Dublin. Three daughters are members of the Loretto Order, at Rathfarnham, Dublin, Kilkenny, and in South Africa.

Office and High Mass.

Office and High Mass were offered for the repose of his soul, and subsequently the interment took place at Ballingaddy Cemetery in the presence of a large assemblage of mourners and sympathisers.—R.I.P.

Death of Mr. P. Barry.

We also deeply regret to announce the death of Mr. Patrick Barry, which took place recently at his residence, West End, Kilfinane. Deceased belonged to one of the oldest and most respected families in the district. Of a kindly and generous disposition he was held in very high esteem and his charming personality endeared him to a large circle of friends.

The Funeral.

The immense cortege which followed the remains from his residence to St. Andrew's Church and from the church to the family burial plot at Ardpatrick was a manifestation of his popularity in the area. Rev. J. Carr, P.P., and Rev. Father Tynan, C.C., officiated at the graveside.—R.I.P.

Feeding Stuffs Scarce.

Feeding stuffs for pigs and poultry are difficult to obtain here at times. It is feared that a scarcity of potatoe will prevail during the coming spring, as owing to the shortage of feeding stuffs a large quantity of this crop has been given to pigs.

Late Canon Breen.

Deep and widespread regret was expressed by the death of Very Rev. P.P. Rockhill. Deceased, who had reached a good old age and enjoyed excellent health up to a short time before his death, which took place peacefully whilst prayers were being read by Rev. Father O'Connell, Rev. Father Crowley, Rev. Father Dolan. The late Canon Breen entered for the greater part of his life at Rockhill and Bruree, both parishes, and Parish Priest and was loved by his people.

A Grand Type.

He was a grand type of a priest, and homely, a fine preacher, and devoted to everything pertaining to the sacred office, gentle yet firm in his approach and a good friend. His voice will no longer be heard from the pulpit at Bruree and Rockhill, but a monument behind him in the church which he built will cause his name to be remembered with reverence by future generations.

Another Death.

The death took place unexpectedly of Mr. Michael O'Connell, residence, Lotteragh, Bruree, on the night of 20th January. Deceased was just in the prime of life and only a short time so that his passing away came as a surprise to his friends but not to the public. The deceased was always so bright and cheerful and obliging.

The Obsequies.

The remains were removed to St. Andrew's Church on Tuesday evening and a large gathering and the interment took place on Wednesday to the ground at Athanacey. The obsequies were officiated at the grave by Rev. J. White, C.C. (brother); Rev. Father O'Donnell, C.C.; Rev. Father Crowley, C.C.; Rev. Father Carroll, Adm. St. M. Church; Rev. Father Lyons, C.C., do.; Rev. O'Sullivan, C.C., do.; Rev. J. Carr, C.C., Colemanswell; Rev. P.P. Banogue; Rev. Father Granagh; Rev. Father O'Connell, Kilmallock; Rev. Father M. O'Connell, do.

Chief Mourners.

The chief mourners were Rev. J. White and William (brother) and Maggie (sisters); Mr. J. Gibbinsgrove; John White; Mrs. T. White, do.; Mrs. J. O'Connell; Betty Clery, Knock; Mrs. Herlihy, M. Herlihy, Sh. Bouldard, Charleville; Miss N. Rea, Mrs. J. Daly; Miss K. Byrnes, W. Byrnes, Miss Cussen, Gurtkeagh; Mrs. Ballinagool; W. Carroll.
