A donor has an advantage should he become a casualty in as much as his blood group is already known and much valuable time is saved in treatment. A decision not to be a donor is easily made, but being a casualty is outside the individual's control. The testing and the transfusion itself are harmless to health, and no person need scruple at offering his or her services under this head.

OBITUARY

MRS. ANNIE LEE, KILLALEE.

Deep regret has been caused by the death of Mrs. Annie Lee, 9 Downey St., Killalee, Limerick, which took place unexpectedly on Monday, January 27th.
 The deceased had been performing her usual daily avocations, and while conversing with a friend she had a sudden seizure from which she failed to rally, and soon after passed away peacefully to her eternal reward. Of a kindly and genial disposition, the deceased was loved and respected in the Parish of St.
 John's (where she had many family ties) by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

The funeral, which took place on Wednesday, January 29th, from St. John's Cathedral to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, was of very large proportions, and expressed the deep public sympathy felt for the husband, family and relatives of the deceased in their loss.

The chief mourners were—Wm. Lee (husband); Christopher Lee (son); Josephine Lee, Mrs. M. Clancy, Mrs. A. Hickey (daughters); Mrs. M. Nealon, Mrs. B.
 O'Kane (sisters); Thos. Walsh (brother); Mrs. T. Walsh (sister-in-law); C. Lee and Thos. O'Kane (brothers-in-law); John Hickey, Joseph Clancy (sons-in-law);
 Mrs. J. Noone, Mrs. G. Dillon, Mary A., Tessie and Peggy O'Kane, Nancy and Mary Walsh (nieces); Tom and Patrick O'Kane, Seamus Walsh, John and Christopher Lee, junr. (nephews); J.
 Noone, Garda Siochana; G. Dillon, Mrs.
 C. Lee, Mrs. O'Connell (relatives).

The clergy who attended the funeral were—Rev. Father Brassill, C.C.; Rev.
 Father Creed, C.C.; Rev. Father O'Grady, C.C.; Rev. Father Moran, C.C., St. John's, and Rev. Father Larkin. R.I.P.
