lectures in preparation for the test. The members of the local branches meet twice weekly for lessons in first aid, and some time is given to practical help for the Society.

Schools Re-Opening.

The recent epidemic of influenza has now abated, and it is hoped that the recent snow fall will help to clear away all danger of infection. Schools are re-opening after the two weeks vacation, and it is expected that the attendance will not be further affected by the epidemic.

Back To Their Parishes.

Rev. Father John Dillon has returned to his Mission work after a short holiday at his home in Killuragh. His parish is in the Cardiff Diocese in Wales. Rev. Father McCarthy, Cross, has also gone back to his English parish after a month's holiday. Both young clergymen are very welcome visitors to the parish and parishioners are glad to welcome them on the occasion of their leave and now pray for their safety in their noble work which has brought them within the war-zone.

ADARE NOTES

(From Our Correspondent).

Recent Death.

The news of the death of Mrs. Ahern, which occurred at her residence, Athea, was received with very sincere regret in Adare. She was mother of Mrs. J. Sparling, Rour, Adare, and of Mrs. Dan Hogan, Kilgobbin; to whom sympathy is extended in their bereavement.
