distribution, at low cost, to s residents of the parish. some form of an allotment nay also be undertaken for the those who may be in a position dvantage of same, ath has taken place at an ad-

Obituary.

England.

The Funeral

ge, at her residence, Graigue, n, of Mrs. C. Noonan, mother Noonan, Chairman, Castletown Club, and of the late Mr. Noonan, who had been hon. of the club for many years.

eaved.

R.I.P.

ype. ed of very many estimable deceased was a particularly of womanhood of the old nd her passing is deeply regretighout the district, where she in the highest esteem. rment. ng Requiem Mass at Ballynairch, the funeral, which was exarge and widely representative, e to Castletown Cemetery. The attendance were as follows:-McNamara, P.P., Ballyagran; Kelly, P.P., Rockhill; Rev. T. P.P., Croagh; Rev. E. Punch. ingret; Rev. P. Lyons, C.C. vell; Rev. D. O'Donnell, C.C. Rev. J. White, C.C., St. John's, ## rom Our Correspondent). es Presented.

LAS AND DISTRICT

appamore Branch of the Irish ss Society held a very successful a dance at the Cinema Hall on night. There was a large attendfore the dance a very interestt took place when Rev. Father C.C., presented certificates of by to the members of the Paliascessful in the recent examinar Centage of Passes.

eely. Limerick, was the examthe per centage of passes was . Dr. E. J. McEnery, Doon, and y O'Neill, Cappamore, gave the in preparation for the test. The , of the local branches meet ekly for lessons in first aid, and ne is given to practical help for ety. Re-Opening. cent epidemic of influenza has ted, and it is hoped that the re-w fall will help to clear away er of infection. Schools are reafter the two weeks vacation, s expected that the attendance be further affected by the epid-Their Parishes. ather John Dillon has returned ission work after a short holi-his home in Killuragh. His s in the Cardiff Diocese in Rev. Father McCarthy, Cross, gone back to his English holiday. month's after ing clergymen are very welcome to the parish and parishioners to welcome them on the occatheir leave and now pray for ety in their noble work which ght them within the war-zone.

DARE NOTES

Death. ews of the death of Mrs. Ahern, rom Our Correspondent).

curred at her residence, Athea, ived with very sincere regret in She was mother of Mrs. J. Rour, Adare, and of Mrs. Dan Kilgobbin; to whom sympathy is in their bereavement.

closed for three weeks owing to the Vacancies for Officers. recent widespread epidemic of influenza. The attendances, however, improved cons'derably during the week when the weather conditions returned to normal.

The death occurred on Wednesday morning of Mrs. M. O'Connor, Lower Maiden Street, Newcastle West, after an illness of some duration. Deceased was the wife of Mr. Maurice O'Connor, and mother of Mr. Denis O'Connor, one of the leading members of the once famed Newcastle West champion hurling team. Two other sons-Messrs. Michael and Thomas O'Connor-were also well-known great loss they have sustained. Death of Mrs. Hough. Her numerous friends and acquaintances all over West Limerick learned with very deep regret of the death of Mrs. Ellen Hough, Monagea, which occurred on Tuesday morning. Relict of the late Mr. Wm. Hough, who predeceased her by several years, the late Mrs. Hough was aged about 77, years, and came from one of the oldest and most widely respected families in the district. She was mother of Mr. Liam Hough, N.T., Treasurer of the Munster Council of the G.A.A. who captained the famous Limerick All-Ireland hurling team in 1918; of Mr. John Hough, Monagea, and Mr. Michael Hough, Dublin, both also well known hurlers and Gaels. Deceased was sister of Mr. Thomas Roche, draper, Newcastle West, and of Mr. Wm. Roche, farmer, Drominbeesom, while she was aunt of Mr. Maurice Hurley, Co.C., and of ex-Inspector D. Hurley, late of the D.M.G. Two of her daughters, Sister

Teresa and Sister Euphemia, are nuns in up at the local primary schools, which were re-opened on Monday after being local Gaels. Sincere sympathy will be extended to the bereaved family on the

There were striking manifestations of public sympathy and regret at the funeral, which took place on Wednesday from Monagea Parish Church to Ardagh Cemetery. Leading Gaels and officials of nd Cappamore Branches who the I.N.T.O. from all parts of Limerick and the neighbouring counties were represented in the cortege, which, despite the difficulties of travel, was one of the largest and most representative ever seen in the district. The officiating clergy were-Right Rev.

Monsignor Hannan, P.P., V.G., Newcastle

West, and William Roche, Drominbeesom

(brothers); Dr. W. J. Roche, Dublin;

John and Michael Roche, Newcastle

West; ex-Superintendent Denny Hurley,

West; Rev. M. Quinn, C.C., do.; Rev. Rev. P. Father O'Grady, C.C., do.; Murphy, C.C., Monagea; Rev. Father Wilmott, C.C., Ardagh. Chief Mourners. Chief mourners-Liam Hough, N.T.; John Hough, Michael Hough and Patrick Hough (sons); Thomas Roche, Newcastle

Dublin; Maurice Hurley, M.C.C.; Michael Hurley, Coolanoran, and William Roche, Dromin (nephews); Mrs. E. Murphy, Miss Colette Roche, Newcastle West (nieces); J. J. King, Secretary, Limerick County Board of Health; Ned Barrett, Pat and Mrs. Kennedy, John Kennedy, Mrs. Jas. Phelan, David and Mrs. Hough, Ballyshane; David D. and Mrs. Hough, Greane; Patrick Hough, J. J. Hough, Newcastle West; John Hough, Dually; Mrs. Ring, Mallow; Mrs. Cullinane, Rathkeale; Michael O'Connor, O.S., Rathkeale; Mr. McCarthy and family, Abbeyfeale; Thomas Conba, Newcastle West; Miss Conba, do.; John McEnery, Camas; Patrick Murphy and Michael Murphy. Newcastle West, etc. (dousins). General Public.

Amongst the general public were: Limerick Co. G.A.A. Board, Messrs! Denny Lanigan and Michael Fitzgibbon Tynan. (treasurer); West Limerick G.A.A. Board Mr. Michael McCarthy (secretary), Mr. Patrick Sadlier, Imperial Hotel, Limerick; Mr. M. Finucane, B.A., N.T., Newcastle West; Mr. J. O'Shea, N.T., do.; Mr. J. Breen, St. Ita's Secondary School; Mr. J. Spiller, manager, National Bank, Newcastle West; Mr. D. O'Dwyer, manager, Provincial Bank, do.; Mr. M.

Liston, manager, Munster and Leinster

Bank, do., etc.

Mr. M. J. Murphy said that was the first meeting held since the re-grouping of the A and B sections. A number of members of B section were transferred to A section and in consequence the B section at present had to elect some new officers. The principal vacancies were for Section Leader and Assistant Section Leader. Appointments Made. Mr. M. Kennedy, Chairman presiding proposed that Mr. P. J. appointed Section Leader.

Murphy, J. Hunt.

Liston be This proposition was seconded by Mr. N. Hickey and adopted. The proposition of Mr. J. E. Liston, seconded by Mr. Michael Kennedy, that Mr. Thomas Frawley be appointed Assistant Section Leader was also adopted. Messrs. J. Hanley and John Mullane were appointed Squad Leaders, Hickey and J: McKessy were appointed Assistant Squad Leaders. Mr. M. J. Murphy was appointed Section Secretary and Mr. Jerome Mullane, Sequion Treas. Next Meeting. It was decided to hold a meeting at the Hall on Sunday next, the 9th February. and that invitations be issued by public notice to those not yet members of the Group to attend. First Aid Unit. The members of the first aid unit. which was organised last year under the known, and the si auspices of Knockaderry L.S.F., have derivable from any now become affiliated members of the better understood, the Red Cross Society and arrangements are being made for an examination for first aid certificates in the near future. Dr.

CHARLEVILLE NOTES

(From Our Correspondent).

Snowfall. With the air crisp and hard on Saturday night last a severe frost was of lectures.

day. Sunday morning, however, brought a surprise, for not alone had frost setin, but snow followed in its train. The fall was a pretty heavy one and roadways were covered in some parts to a depth of six inches. Travelling to the early Mass was somewhat difficult owing to the condition of the roads, and quite - number of people from the country districts had to make the journey on foot. There was no cold and a tendency to milder conditions seemed imminent.

Monday brought no appreciable change, day a thaw set in when roads and footpaths were in a slushy state.

and a frost overnight made roadways practically impassable owing to the slippery condition of the surface. On Tues-

Icy | Conditions.

Circuit Court. The Hilary sittings of the Circuit Court for the area will open in the Courthouse. Mallow, on Tuesday next, the 11th inst., before his Honor, Judge O'Connor, when civil and equity business and workmen's compensation cases will be dealt with.

Force are now having weekly drill practice in the old Picture Palace Hall, where they are being trained by Sergeant M. Red Cross. At the annual meeting of the local bring priceless blessi branch held in the Parochial Hall the following officers were re-elected for the

L.S.F.

The B Group of the Local Security ensuing year: Chairman, Rev. Father J. Rurke, P.P.; Vice-Chairmen, Messrs, M. J. Murray and John O'Shea (M. & L. Bank); Treasurer, Mrs. Helen Cahill, and Secretary, Mr. James McAuliffe, D.C.C. Committee. Magnion MOH Dr Cecil for the education of I the priesthood who I selves for service in mission fields and who in a position to defra their education. A officially stated, is " education of native stu for the priesthood in

The objects of the S

laudable that could body. They are to p

with an opportunity

the missionary work.

promote the true mis

foster missionary voc

The Society has alre amount of good that respectively, for Knockaderry and Clounmeasured by any hur cagh, and Mr. Michael B. Liston, Mr. N. this moment, as a r several priests are sp abroad and winning souls for God. Sur fields."

nothing nobler than to glorious work, the he bring joy and satisfa and ensures for exceedingly rich rewa much to say that pursued were more at once on a huge support. Michael O'Donnell is giving a final course * . * This country has very strong and acti Society. Limerick, w has taken up the m good and promising to be expected from a like this. The procee annual meeting of t he Railways Branch headway has been ma anticipated to be in the offing for Sun-> late in pushing the Society. The Limeric some 4.050 members In stating this th honorary secretary, was able to make the ment that two new Society, had been on one by the Bacon Tr by the Post Office W Apart from those members of branches. are worthy of the hig others can assist th

dasy but definitely pra

for instance, wedkly tions of small amou are being made in a establishments. factor this way very valuable and such co-operati extended very consciousness of havi to the slightest es education of a studen is in itself a consoling of aid in such a we cause serves a great mu

Some illuminating of of the Society and i in Dublin last wee meeting of the Rail Wilson, the honorary