

iced that among the gathering there are many guests, whom he hoped to see in the near future present at a similar function, not as guests but as recipients of First Aid Certificates.

Recipients of Certificates

The following were those who received First Aid Certificates: Mrs. H. McNamara, Mrs. M. K. Sheehy, Misses B. Crowley, L. B. Daly, H. Daly, Deakin, K. Keogh, A. Keogh, A. Lyons, M. Hannon, J. Egan, B. McAuliffe, O'Kelly, P. McSullivan, N. Wall and Messrs. M. Wall, P. O'Mahony, N.T.; J. McSullivan and D. D. O'Halloran.

Whist Drives.

At the weekly whist drive held in aid of Red Cross funds a most enjoyable time resulted and the following were declared winners:—Ladies 1st Prize, Mrs. O'Kelly; 2nd. (do.), Garda J. Hyland, playing as lady. Gents 1st. Prize, Mr. Noonan, Milford; 2nd., Mr. J. J. Savage, The Square.

The L.D.F.

The local group of the L.D.F. held their shooting competition on Sunday last, and after keen competition the following were declared the winners:—1st., Squad Leader D. O'Sullivan, Sheshe; 2nd., Squad Leader P. McAuliffe, Berrihy.

A remarkable feature of the competition was the excellent marksmanship shown by some of the younger members of the Group.

Recent Death.

During the week-end death has received one of the oldest inhabitants of the locality in the person of Mrs. A. Kelly, Gardenfield. Of a well-known and highly respected family, her death, even at such an advanced age, is deeply mourned by a large circle of friends. The interment, which took place at Buncollogher on Monday, was attended by a very large concourse of people.

HUNTING

—oo—

COUNTY LIMERICK HOUNDS

The County Limerick Hounds will meet: February 17th, Monday, ... Athlaccra. February 19th, Wednesday, ... Askeaton. February 21st, Friday (bye-day), Ballinacorney. February 24th, Monday, ... Fedamore. Hour, 12 o'clock.

Followers are requested not to ride rough dairy cows and sheep.

SCARTEEN HUNT.

The Scarteen Hunt (The Black and Whites) will meet as under:— Monday, Feb. 14th ... Caherline Cross. Tuesday, Feb. 18th ... Ballinamona. Wednesday, Feb. 21st ... Derk. Thursday, Feb. 25th ... Elton. Friday, Feb. 28th ... Ballinacree. Hour—12 o'clock.

Followers are earnestly requested to avoid galloping through or near dairy

Officers.

The following appointments have been made in the L.D.F. here:—Mr. P. O'Connell, Adjutant; Mr. M. Sheehan, Intelligence Officer, and Mr. E. McCarthy, Quarter-Master.

Second Place.

We offer our congratulations to Assistant Group Leader M. Walsh and to Mr. M. Cusack in securing second place for Foynes in the rifle competition held at Newcastle West last Sunday. They secured 141 marks, being only three marks behind the winners, Kilmeedy, who registered 144.

Next Sunday's Competition.

There will, undoubtedly, be a big crowd in Glin next Sunday to witness Shangolden, Foynes and Glin L.D.F. competing for a handsome silver cup which is being presented by Mr. J. McNally of that town for the winner of the drill and parade competition. The cup, which is displayed in the shop window of Mr. E. Stack, Group Leader, Glin L.D.F., is a beauty and a trophy that will always be cherished by the successful group. Undoubtedly Mr. McNally is a very generous patron. Well, here's wishing Foynes the best of luck for next Sunday.

Land Division Meeting.

There was a very large attendance at the recent land division meeting held in Borrhigone in connection with the Smyth Estate. They were all very pleased with the reception given to their Chairman, Mr. J. Neville, and their Secretary, Mr. M. Kelly, by the Irish Land Commission officials in Limerick.

Death.

We regret to announce the death of Miss Norah Madigan, Shrulawn, Foynes, which took place at her residence on Wednesday morning of last week. She was a very popular lady in the district and was sister of Mr. Patrick Madigan and Miss Mai Madigan, Shrulawn; of Mrs. T. Mangan, Ardineer, and Mother Augustine, Carmelite Convent, New Ross. On Wednesday evening the remains were removed to Robertstown Church and at noon the funeral, which was of large proportions, took place to the family burial ground, Robertstown Cemetery. The officiating clergy were Rev. Father Quinlan, C.C., Foynes; Rev. Father Byrnes, C.C., Shanagolden, and Rev. Father McDonnell, C.C., Ballyhahill.

"The Far East."

A special appeal for support for the monthly missionary periodical, "The Far East," was made at both Masses last Sunday by Rev. Father Toner, of the Maynooth Mission to China. Foynes is always generous in supporting a good cause and surely a deserving one like this will not lack support here.

I was so embarrassed and our extra burden on our shoulders. It is improbable that some of the people now being spoken

In normal times it is good to have inventive genius forward moves. But in a crisis of comfort nor hope horse and you'll pounding of too has the great deal itself it offers and immediately related to prevent that could be done noticed, for example high-sounding talk agency very little move to put the Unemployment is an urgent task before ought be tackled standing question for effective action many years before even thought of. improve the situation permanent and growth addition to meeting urgent need, be a valuable asset and a Nobody can deny work of a useful nature to be done all of are not the unemployment to this work instead trying to eke existence on relief inadequate? If insuperable reasons definite forward movement it ought be expected people.

Much is being and quite rightly more tillage. But unemployed to get extra food to be not in a position aspect of the question very largely over