MRS. NORA T. MCCARTHY, CAHERLANE.

The death of Mrs. T. McCarthy, relict of the late Timothy McCarthy, of Caherlane, Abbeyfeale, occurred, after several weeks illness, at the fine old age of 88. Her death took place at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Dan McCarthy, Tullig, Templeglantine. Possessed of many kindly qualities, and one of that fine old type of Irish Catholic womanhood, she commanded the respect and esteem of all who knew her. She may truly have been said to be a member of an old West Limerick family, for according to her grandfather, Tim Casey, who resided at Kilconlea prior to coming to Caherlane, the Caseys had resided in Kilconlea district, from family tradition, for the space of 1,100 years. Fifty-seven grand-children survive the deceased.

At the conveyance of the remains to Abbeyfeale Parish Church, and also next day at the interment in the old Abbey Cemetery, the attendance of the general public was of very large proportions. A number of Mass cards were placed on the bier by sympathising relatives and friends.

The prayers at the graveside were read by Very Rev. T. Canon Hogan, P.P., V.F.; Rev. J. Houlihan, C.C., and Rev. W. J. Meade, C.C.
