MIDDLE EAST AND AFRICA.

A spokesman of the British Embassy in Cairo is reported to have said, says a despatch, that the time is clearly ripe for a full review of the political and military situation in the Middle East and Africa as the outcome of the brilliant victory of the Army of the Nile. The War Cabinet had shown the importance of this review by sending the Foreign Secretary as their representative, assisted by the Cabinet's chief military adviser. There would be full consultations with the military leaders in the Middle East and other authorities.

DEEPLY REGRETTED

DEATH OF CORPORAL P. MACKAY

Deep and widespread sorrow was caused by the announcement of the death of Corporal Patrick Mackey, son of Mr.
John Mackey, Co.C., Castleconnell. The deceased, who passed away in Mallow Military Hospital, on Wednesday, was a fine type of young Gaelic manhood and gave promise of becoming, like his brothers Mick and John, a very fine hurler. The remains, accompanied by a military escort from Collins Barracks, Cork, the coffin being draped with the Tricolour, were conveyed last evening to Castleconnell Church. Here they were received by Rev. Father Fogarty, P.P., and Rev. Father Daffy, C.C., both of whom recited the Rosary. Several prominent Gaels joined the cortege along the way from Mallow, Ahane hurlers being particularly prominent. Those present also included Rev. E. Punch, Chairman of Limerick County Board of the G.A.A. L.S.F. men, under Group Leader E. Delaney, provided a guard of honour at Castleconnell Church.

The late Corporal Mackey, who was extremely popular, and deservedly so, was only 21 years of age. His funeral took place to-day to Castleconnell Cemetery.
