ago. They also searched the parish s and found the names of those were looking for. They expressed pleasure at visiting Glin, the e place of their ancestors.

ST LIMERICK COAL SEAM

ggesting that a coal seam in Knockand Cratloe districts of West Limeshould be worked and exploited, our a correspondent says that at certain s in the former area the seam proso near the surface that for some s past people have been carting it in quantities. "The coal found he says, "is di excellent quality. very lasting, burns steadily and gives a minimum of smoke."

SCALE OF CHARGES

Important Notice

Special attention is directed to the scale of charges appearing on page ten of this issue. These charges for publication of funeral reports and the other classes of items specified will have to be rigidly adhered to in all cases for the future.

ST. MARY'S PARISH

he Retreat for the women of St. ry's Parish will commence in St. ry's Church on next Sunday evening, rch 2nd, at 7 o'clock. Morning Mass be celebrated during the week at 7 ock and the evening devotions will be at 'clock. The Retreat will be conducted Rev. Father F. Russell, C.SS.R., and v. Father James McLoughlin, C.SS.R. e Retreat for the men will commence Sunday, March 9th, at 7 p.m.

LIMERICK MAN'S WILL

Mr. Henry Russell, of Hawthorn, rth Circular Road, Limerick, company ector, who died on 28th October last, t estate of the gross value of £3,170. mpler Russell.

SHANNON AIRPORT DANCE

The Shannon airport social dance held in Newcastle West last Sunday night was a great success (writes our Foynes Dance patrons here correspondent). never miss one of them and they hold a strong appeal for Newcastle West and surrounding towns. Frank Lohan's Band was superb as usual. Mr. J. Geoghegan, the Hon. Secretary, got strong support from the following energetic committee-Messrs. M. Herlihy, M. Keane, D. Lawlor, D. J. Madden, B. Mathews, S. McWilliams (who was capable M.C.), A. Roche and P. Rohan. The funds go to provide a tennis court. The airport table tennis team played the Newcastle West selection, winning all sets. For the airport were-M. Herlihy (capt.), S. Tierney, H. B. Doherty, D. J. Madden, R. Mathews and M. Keane.

DEATH OF MR. JAMES BARRY

With much regret we announce the death of Mr. James F. Barry, who passed away this morning. The deceased, who was second son of the late Mr. James F. Barry, one-time Mayor of Limerick and later City Coroner, had been ill for eleven years back, the last five of which he spent in hospital. was formerly a lieutenant in National Army, attached to the Clare-The possessor of morris Command. many fine qualities and attributes, he was a great favourite with a very wide circle of friends and acquaintances. To his bereaved relatives we extend our very sincere sympathy.

CONSTRUCTION CORPS

The response to the appeal for recruits for the Construction Corps has been so good that the Government has decided to sanction the establishment of three additional battalions, each providing for 830 men, apart from officers and N.C.O. instructors. Until arrangements have been completed in the large towns in the provinces, recruiting will continue to be confined to Dublin, Dun Laoghaire and surrounding districts, and Collins Barracks will be the recruiting centre.

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Mass will be offered on Friday, March obate is granted to his son, Francis 7th, 1941, at 8 o'clock, at the Augustinian mpler Russell of 23 Grafton Street, Church, Limerick, for the repose of the blin, accountant. He left his property souls of ex-Mayor Michael O'Callaghan, his wife for life, with remainder to Mayor Seoirse Clancy, and Joseph sons, Henry, Brian and Francis O'Donoghue (I.R.A.), murdered by the English on March 7th, 1921.

to the big increas meals served and foodstuffs the Com funds have run ver

I have personal excellent work car mittee and I canno their efforts to alle the very poor of th

I will be glad to ledge subscriptions fund, and I know rely on your kind my appeal full pub

The Committee mention that they flag day on Saturo Yours faithfu

> Town I 28th Fe

MESSRS. WM. PROPERTY ... L GRAZING

On Saturday, F Wm. B. Fitt & ducted their usua property, land sa tings, at Salesroo Limer'ck, for Mrs. The first lot offer residence known well, standing on perches, statute, v offices. Held from a very low annu £14; land estimate for this lot opene advanced to £800 subsequently sold to Mr. Jas. Sexto Lot 2-The small a part of the lands well, containing 16 statute. Held in £12 5s, with cott was withdrawn at sold for £425 an Roger O'Sullivan, The residence k Patrickswell, stan 0 perches, statute subject to low a sold by private tre Sunnyside, Patric Smyth, solr., 47 rick, had carr age

GRAZIN Part of the la the Reps. of the acres, at £5 4s. p February 20th, a for Capt. Wm. M five divisions, fro acre. The result was considered v