MUNSTER COLLEGES FINAL

In the Munster Colleges senior hurling semi-final, played at Limerick Gaelic Grounds yesterday (Thursday), St. Flannan's College (Ennis) scored a surprise win over Mount St. Joseph (Roscrea), on the score of 3-3 to 3-2. It was a keenly contested game and play reached a high standard. At half-time Roscrea led 3-2 to 2-1. In the second period St. Flannan's rallied and reduced the lead to 2 points. Roscrea, though getting many chances of improving their position, failed to do so, and on the stroke of time St. Flannan's had the all-important goal to give them the right to oppose Rockwell in the final. Mr. W. Naughton (Treaty) refereed.

A RINSO CARTOON FILM IN TECHNICOLOUR

Harry Hemsley, the famous child impersonator, has been most successful over the radio, because his "family" of children is entirely imaginary, and, therefore, invisible. But next week, at the Savoy, Limerick will have the chance to see Harry's children on the screen. The film in which they appear is a cartoon film made by the makers of Rinso and the principal characters are three mischievous little kittens. Harry Hemsley did the voices for all three and has made one of them a tough little boy who steals the picture.

TALLER IN THE

At a meeting of the Hospital Committee a letter was received from the Minister for Local Government prescribing that persons to be employed by the attendant staff in full-time work should be at least 5ft. 4ins. for females and 5ft. 7ins. for males. Dr. McKeown said they might ask the Minister to reconsider his decision, as a medical survey made by the Health Department showed that the average height of the population in Limerick was less than the prescribed minimum.
