When one of the resigned Cabinet ttle Ministers arrived in his home town of the Anjanluka yesterday he was met by 10,000 people, who gave him a great ovation. THE WAR IN THE AIR. The British Air Ministry stated to-day that only a small number of German condone. by in-

elaborate precautions are being maintain order.

ers.

een

orb-

stal-

tion

intil done.

one

of

akes

gion

Old

story

rime

hers

what

man-

gives continues.

planes took part in raids on England during the night." Little damage was The Press Association states that a German bomber dropped bombs on a south-east coast town in England this ign will morning. Some houses in the residential area were demolished. Afterwards, raiders flew for several miles along the coast, hat firing machine guns.

It was officially stated in Athens to-day has that in battles in the region of the river Aoos the Italians suffered heavy losses. The The German communique states that in rted North Africa British positions were bombed with deadly effect. ring It is reported from Cairo that the inst

exist British advance on all African fronts

PINTS OF PORTER

On a Sunday when a large crowd of

ives The R.A.F. carried out raids on Berlin

GREECE AND AFRICA.

and on towns in North-West German. It is claimed that extensive damage was

ON A COLD DAY Rev.

lary, people were in Bruff Guards raided a iporlocal publichouse. The sequel was heard the by District Justice Conner at Bruff Court. with Thomas Hannon, Kilmallock, was sumrican moned for a breach of the licensing laws quire on Sunday, 9th March, in respect of premises in Bruff. Seven men were sumalso moned for having been on the premises. Supt. Smith prosecuted; Mr. W. A. Box, Lee, solr., appeared for the publican, and news Mr. R. Geary, solr., was for one of the kin's men. Sergeant, McKenna stated that on the nued aries night of 9th March at 9.45 he knocked

The at the front door of defendant's premises and was admitted by the publican. He from found two men standing at the counter, ellers, both of whom were drinking pints of 7 Lr. porter. They had no excuse to offer and tand- the publican said that he was unable to price get them out. Witness went into the kitchen, where he found five other men, four of whom had drinks. One of the men was sitting at the fire waiting to go home with the publican. The publican admitted he supplied the drinks and said ining he could not get the men out of the s, re- premises. The drinks were only partly

Mr. Lee In other words, there was a consumed.

ollow-

the

and

rough

old regime and on the setting up of the Free State was appointed a Peace Commissioner. Mr. Nolan had been Belgian Consul for Limerick and district, and in recognition of his services was decorated some years ago by the late King Albert. The funeral took place to-day, after

A timely and excellent booklet on the clean breast made of the whole thing? - Holy Week Ceremonies has been issued There was no attempt made to conceal by the "Assisi" Press. Merchants' Quay, Dublin It contains in short an explana- The ever-popular "C hoped that ships dues and goods rates be partially attribu would yield £3,000 at the end of the year. epidemics resulting That sum, together with other items of disorganisation of the income, rents, etc., should bring the total Associations and the in families arising ou ESTIMATE OF LOSS FOR THE existing economic di tioned as a particula Estimating expenditure at £11,400, after acted adversely in co eliminating non-recurring items progress of Schools Sa effecting economies where possible, he The adult association arrived at an estimated working loss of operating satisfactorily £5,400 for the year. Adding a further affected by the econor £600 for income tax on surplus for 1940, SURPLUS IN FAM and without making any provision for The progressive depreciation, he arrived at a net loss of modities of a luxury class would tend to p The Mayor said that the statement was the expenditure of m a very important one. It could scarcely resulting in many inst be considered adequately in public and in the family budget. he suggested that the meeting go into

Presuming

stated that recently

schools in the City a

numbers and subscrip

dence. The decrease, h

that one of the aims of

ment should be to pro

investment of such

in the near future th

earners in this respect

with that of those

there is no other a

save some of the in

tunities do not facilit

FELICITATIONS TO

A. J. Eakins, on beha

tendered felicitations,

N.T., on his election

Mr. R. Champion

that the responsible

would not prevent

continuing his very

promotion of thrift.

themselves with t

tendered to the Chai

bers, assured them t

times lend every c

promotion of the th

would decidedly enc

development of scho

DRAMA ANI

tions.

The other members

Mr. Coleman, in

Before the proceedi

factory.

The report was cor

to deal with the report in committee. courage the purchas LATE MR. WM. M. NOLAN. goods and services. Before the meeting adjourned, referred to private Mayor proposed a vote of sympathy with although enduring an the widow and family of the late Mr. Wm. were now in a position M. Nolan, who was an old, esteemed and ably to any savings honoured citizen.

DEATH OF MR. WM. M. NOLAN It is with deep regret that we announce the death of Mr. Wm. M. Nolan, which took place in his residence, " Mentana,

Laurel Hill Avenue, Limerick, on Satur-an average weekly income of only £52, the loss in revenue at the end of the year that the situation became no worse it was

YEAR.

committee to examine the whole position.

The vote was passed in silence.

PROMINENT FIGURE

It was accordingly unanimously decided would probably be £9,880.

revenue to £6,000.

£6.000.

Clerk.

AN

Vice-President by t day. The deceased, who had reached Teachers Organisatio his 85th year, was identified with the honour. It was an public life of Limerick for close on half the members of tha a century. In his early years he followed he felt assured tha commercial pursuits, but he was soon activity Mr. Coleman' attracted to public activities. Having be fruitful of very iv been elected a member of the Corporaguished services. tion, he filled the following offices in turn-High Sheriff, Mayor and Town

the following year he resigned on his

In 1895 he was elected Mayor, but in appointment as Town Clerk, a position which he filled with distinction for 36 years. He retired on superannuation just nine years ago, and on that occasion glowing tributes were paid to him for his many sterling qualities of head and heart. He was a Justice of the Peace under the

Requiem High Mass in St. Michael's Church, to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, and the cortege, which was of very large proportions, was representative of all sections of the community. EXCELLENT BOOKLET

ENJOYABLE EN AT HERBI The National Fest

a highly, successful ment at Herbertst amateur society of Monday nights (wri