Dr. Fogarty, Bishop presided at Solemn which brought the religious ceremonies to a climax on Sunday last. The ship extended Easter to the people and imparted a Blessing.

caused by the short-travel and the abandonment of the popular Clare Hunt races owing to foot disease resulted in a quiet Easter. Very few ventured to Lahinch and only travelled on bicycles. It was quite a common sight to see bands of young cyclists on the twenty miles to Lahinch and return "the pictures" at night. In exception of the Easter competitions at Lahinch there was no major sporting at the county, and even for these competitions a shade of their former

His life a beautiful memory;
 His death a silent sorrow.
 (Sadly missed by his loving wife and family).

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

Cross—The family of the late John Cross (senr.), New Road, Singland, Limerick, desire to thank sincerely the many kind friends who sent Mass cards, wreaths, telegrams and messages of sympathy in their recent sad bereavement; also those who sympathised personally with them and attended the funeral. They trust that all will accept this acknowledgment as a sincere token of their gratitude.

Gilligan—The family of the late Mr. Patrick Gilligan, painting con-several pounds of your EXCEL TWIST, THOMOND PLUG and IRELAND'S PRIDE FLAKE. I never found a better tobacco, that sweet taste and mild smoke, no burning on the tongue. Your tobacco is incomparable, a better tobacco was never made.

"It's a pleasure for me to send you an appreciation about your tobacco. Maybe my English is not correct. I am a Dane from Copenhagen and haven't used the English language in twenty years, but more different languages. I am travelling the World over as Chief Erector.

Yours faithfully,

Will you please send me 1 lb. Thomond Plug and 1 lb. Ireland's Pride Flake—that's the best tobacco I have smoked in many years. Enclosed £— in postal order.

CALF DISEASES

There are many ills to which calves are subject, and probably that which causes the greatest loss is White Scour or calf dysentery. This great scourge usually makes its appearance when calves are young, and the number of deaths resulting therefrom are very high. However, many farmers will be pleased to hear that there is now available a cure for this dread disease. This cure is known as Bistol No. 1, Grade A, and may be obtained locally from your creamery or chemist. This genuine remedy gives one hundred per cent. cures, and the price is 5/6 per bottle of 20 doses. If you have any difficulty in obtaining Bistol write to the makers, Messrs. Watson's, Manufacturing Chemists, 61 South Great George's St., Dublin, enclosing a postal order for 6/- which includes postage.

Farmers! Insist on getting Bistol No. 1, Grade A. It is a genuine remedy.
