135 acres under tillage, to Mr. Crowe, Slatefield, who, working day and night with his tractors, had sown all the corn for the Guild in record time; to Mr. A. Fogarty, T.D., who was entitled to credit for having obtained the land which had been tilled that day, and to Captain J. Leahy, who "personified the spirit of Tipperary."

Rev. J. M. Hayes, C.C., Tipperary, President, Muintir na Tire, congratulated the Guild, and said they were struck by the great spirit of enthusiasm and co-operation among the people in this great national work of food production. Muintir na Tire was pleased with the work that was being done all over the country by its Guilds. The lead given by the Boherlahan Guild was one to be followed by all the other Guilds.

Mr. A. Fogarty, T.D., said it was by practical work of that kind that the Irish people could be assured of a sufficiency of food as long as the present emergency lasted.

MR. J. COLLINS, ADARE.

On Sunday, April 6th, after a protracted illness, which was borne with true Christian patience and fortitude, Mr. Jack Collins passed away at his residence, The Avenue, Adare, at a rather early age. Deceased, who was the eldest son of the late Patrick and Mrs. Collins, old and respected residents of Adare, was an amiable, in-offensive young man and a general favourite in the locality, and to his sisters and brother deepest sympathy is extended.

The remains were removed to the local church on Monday evening and the funeral to the family burial ground, Adare, on Tuesday was of large and representative proportions and bore striking testimony of the high esteem in which deceased was held.

The officiating clergy at the graveside were—Very Rev. P. J. Canon Thornhill, P.P., and Rev. J. Culhane, C.C.

Mass cards were received from the following—His sisters and brother; the Kearney family; N. Collins; M. Flynn; Pauline Warner; Mary Collins John Kelly and Mary; Mr. and Mrs. Kelly and family; Mrs. Conway and family; the Post Office staff. (26p)
