UNFOUNDED RUMOUR

A rumour that large areas of wheat crops had been ploughed in East Clare owing to the continued drought is without foundation. Although rain would be welcome the wheat crop is standing up well to the weather conditions, according to Mr. T. Healy, Agricultural Instructor for the county. He stresses the fact, however, that proper rolling of the crop is absolutely essential.

MILK TO REPLACE

The Matron of the Clare County Asylum, at Ennis, which caters for 100 inmates, is finding it impossible to manage with the half ounce of milk per person, Mr. J. Quin, Secretary, told the Clare Board of Health suggested milk powder as a substitute and the Chairman (Mr. Fahy) said that the inmates should not touch "that stuff." The Board ordered that milk be provided as a substitute.
