Died in New York.

The death, in New York, of Miss Margaret O'Reilly is much regretted in Glin, her native place. She is daughter of the late Mr. Michael O'Reilly, a former respected parish clerk, and of Mrs. O'Reilly. Deep sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

FALSE TEETH AND INFECTION

Every dental plate that is not scrupulously clean is a ready breed-the adjoining parishes. The procession formed at 1.45 and began to move at 2 p.m.

The following was the order observed:—

1. Cross Bearer and Acolytes.
2. Schoolgirls of Parish.
3. Womens' Confraternity (preceded by banner).
4. Schoolboys of Parish.
5. Confraternity of Sacred Heart (men).

Impressive Spectacle.

At the altar at the Cross Benediction was celebrated and at the solemn moment of the blessing a most impressive spectacle was witnessed as the kneeling thousands paid silent homage to the Eucharistic King. Following Benediction the procession re-formed and returned to the Church, where a sacred Benediction was imparted to a crowded congregation.

Recent Death.

It was with feelings of greatest sorrow that the people of the district learned of the death of Mr. Tim O'Connell, Castleishon,, which took place at a Cork hospital following an operation. One of the best known figures in the locality, and popular among all classes, the deceased gentleman seemed to be in the best of health, and the news of his death, at a comparatively early age, came as a great shock to his numerous friends, who extend their deepest sympathy to his wife and young family. The funeral, which took place from Tullylease to Clonfert on Sunday last, was of exceedingly large dimensions.

Football Team.

The Dromcollogher football team made a great start on Sunday last when, in their opening game, they drew with Ballyhahill, a much more experienced combination. The result, though a fitting one by no means, flattered the local team and the next encounter is eagerly looked forward to, and the players can in the meantime put to the best advantage the time at their disposal.
