SCOUT NOTES

(BY SCRIBE.)

4th Limerick St. Munchin's Troop—First Aid.

On last Sunday our Scouts were unable to attend the Gaelic Grounds to render first aid, as all our first aid crews were on duty owing to the "invasion."

Mr. Murphy continued his lectures on Thursday night last, and if we are to judge by the eagerness shown by the scouts and also the very marked improvement in their first aid, the scouts of St. Munchin's should be second to none in that sphere.

Emergency Duties.

On Friday night last the Scoutmaster received word to have 20 dispatch riders for Sunday at 1 p.m.

Patrol Leader R. Gabbett was notified to have them in the Hall for Sunday and though he did not get 20 cyclists, he got a great number of scouts, cyclists and runners together for duty.

At 1.15 p.m. scouts moved off from the Hall to the Custom's House, which was their headquarters for the day. Troop Leader S. O'Brien taking charge.

A very busy evening ensued for the scouts but all were delighted to be able to render some little service.

Camp.

Preparations are still going on for our camp which we expect to hold on the first week in August. We expect to have at least three full patrols in camp. This, including officers, would make a total of 26, all told. Various sites are being inspected by our officer, but none has been selected yet.

First Limerick.

On last Sunday the Troop had a patrol of scouts on duty at Sarsfield Barracks, where they rendered valuable assistance in co-operating with the L.D.F. supply unit. It is interesting to know that the S.M. of this Troop is also the District Quartermaster for the L.D.F.

Summer Camp.

The Troop has not yet arrived at a decision as to where the annual camp will be held. It is hoped that Dunmore East will be the selected venue. But should the camp be an inland one it is probable that they will pitch their tents in the Glen of Aherlow.

Next Sunday the Troop will participate in the procession of the Boys Confraternity. No definite instructions has been issued there yet, but in all probability they will have a first aid patrol on duty, while the remainder of the Troop will march in the procession.

Third Limerick.

This Troop is making great progress despite the fact that most of its members are giving all their time to the L.D.F. It will very soon, please God, reach the standard which it occupied in the "good old days."

Scouts to whom great credit is due for the revival are A.S.M. Martin Walsh and S.P.L. Oliver Tobin.

On next Sunday, the Troop will also participate in the procession.

St. Joseph's Troop—Fifth Limerick.

The leaders and senior scouts of the above Troop held a week-end camp at Clarina Castle last week-end, by kind permission of Mr. P. King, to whom grateful thanks is extended. The camp was conducted by S.M. Aherne and A.S.M. Griffin. Under their supervision many of the tests of the second class badge were passed. Helped by good weather and a good scouting spirit, the camp was a huge success. Permission has been granted by Mr. King to leave the camp in the grounds, and it is hoped that as well as the seniors and leaders staying under canvas the junior scouts may enjoy many week-ends also there.

GOLF

LIMERICK CLUBS

The thirty-six hole final for the Treacy Cup was played off at Limerick Golf Club course on Saturday last between Mr. Noel Donovan and Mr. M. Hurley. The latter was conceding 5 strokes in each round. At the end of the first eighteen holes Mr. Donovan was 1 up, which he increased to 3 up with only six holes to play. Mr. Hurley then won three holes in succession to square the match. At the nineteenth he was short with

OBITUARY

MR. M. O'DONOGHUE, GLIN.

The death of an advanced age of Mr. James O'Donoghue, farmer, Drumrak, Glin, has just taken place. Deceased was a member of an old Glin family of the farming class and was held in the highest regard by his relatives and neighbours for his honesty and industry. It would be impossible to give a full list. A number of Mass cards and beautiful wreaths were also sent by sympathisers.

MISS B. FITZGERALD, CLONOUGHTER, GLIN.

Much public regret was everywhere evident on Thursday morning, 26th June, at the early demise of Miss Bridget (Bride) Fitzgerald, Clonoughter, Glin. She was a very esteemed young lady with a bright and cheerful, though unassuming, manner that endeared her to all. After a protracted illness, borne with Christian fortitude she passed peacefully to her reward fortified by the Rites of the Holy Church. An impressive tribute to deceased's memory was paid at the interment on Saturday, 28th June, when there was a large and representative attendance. May the clay of Killefergus rest lightly on her.

The chief mourners were: Mrs. Normille, Mrs. Fitzgerald and Katherine (sisters), Richard and Michael (brothers), Michael, John, Joe and Tom Normille (nephews), Nellie and Brenda Normille (nieces), Mr. Maher and Miss Bridget Fitzgerald (aunts), Michael Fitzgerald (brother-in-law), Mr. J. Maher and family, Mr. Martin Mulvihill and family, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Connor, Roosknagh, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Geoghegan, Glenharrold, Mr. and Mrs. John Sheehy and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom O'Connor, Mr. and Mrs. J.
