

great privilege for him to be in the ceremony. He in the first place, heartily salute the Limerick branch had been already accomplished. He was particularly with the progress of the in Limerick and hearty were due to all con- Within two months Limerick produced three fully and equipped Divisions—es, and one men's. It was essential that they should e personnel in organised, for in that way the most work could be done in an emergency.

should be prepared to meet emergency, and in that connection would like to stress what n done, and what was being a Dublin by the Red Cross ing for refugees from Eng- elfast, and for those who in consequence of the bombs which fell on the did not know when the ser- of the organisation through- country would be needed, the work was to be really e, they should have complete s, rather than trained, un- ed personnel.

TRIBUTE TO SECRETARY.

eding, his Lordship said e development and growth organisation was a cause itimate pride for those of who were with it from its and in that connection he to pay a very special tri- the hon. secretary of the k Branch, Mr. O'Reilly, who rked zealously and indefati- or the success of the move- In saying that it should not med that all the other mem- the local executive did not praise and congratulation. they did, but it would be ated that the major part of rk fell on the shoulders of n secretary (hear, hear). k had now a very efficient ross Branch, but it could even more efficient if all ible young ladies and gentle- the city, who had not yet l, joined up now. He availed opportunity to appeal to o come into the organisation y in the national interest, their own (applause).

proceedings were brought to by a March Past, the officers the salute to the National an.

THE MAYOR.

Mayor (Mr. D. J. O'Malley, ) was unavoidably absent. been detained in Dublin on business

MILL HILL FATHERS

The first ordination ceremony of St. Joseph's Foreign Missionary College of the Mill Hill Fathers, at Freshford, Co. Kilkenny, was performed on Sunday by the Most Rev. Dr. Collier, Bishop of Ossory.

The priests ordained were:—Rev. J. McCarthy, Limerick; Rev. M. Curry, Kildare, and Rev. G. Egan, Cashel.

The Mill Hill Fathers opened their foundation at Freshford in 1932, Eucharistic Congress year. The three new priests are the first of a long and ever-increasing stream of missionaries which, it is hoped, will leave Freshford for the missions entrusted to the care of St. Joseph's Foreign Mission Society, which has five mission fields in Africa, two in India, two in Borneo, and missions in New Zealand and the Philippines.

Dr. Collier was assisted by Very Rev. H. Moran, Rector, Freshford; Very Rev. J. P. Kennelly, Rector, Freshfield, Liverpool; Rev. J. Morris, Rev. T. Burke-Kennedy and Rev. D. McKenna, Freshford.

DEATH OF TEACHER

The death of Mr. John D. Broderick, N.T., of Caherlane, Abbeyfeale, occurred after a short illness at the age of 76, and is much regretted by his colleagues of the West Limerick section of the I.N.T.O. and by numerous friends and relatives on both sides of the Feale (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent). His acts and feelings always seemed to emanate from a disposition of kindness and sociality. Most of what might be said of his sterling qualities found expression some years ago in the practical tribute paid by his fellow teachers to mark his retirement from the profession. Their attendance at the removal of his remains on Saturday to the Abbeyfeale Parish Church and the interment in the Old Abbey Cemetery on Sunday in such numbers and from distant parts of the neighbouring counties, marked a continuance of those kindly feelings of esteem and respect so fully shared with them by the public generally.

TRANSFER OF RAILWAY OFFICIAL

General regret (writes our Pallas correspondent) is felt at the news that Mr. Cosgrave, stationmaster at Pallas, is being transferred to struck one and that he might need medical attention.

Dr. P. J. Irwin stated that Lee was a very efficient night watchman.

IN THE EXECUTION OF HIS DUTY.

Mr. O'Sullivan said that Lee assaulted Mangan in the execution of his duty. It was Lee's job to protect the property of his employers and in the doing of that he was entitled to use a certain amount of violence.

The Justice said that the case was a peculiar one. If Mangan had business at Lee's house he should have gone there before 12 o'clock. Another peculiar feature was that Mangan brought another man with him. But Lee seemed to be a very excitable man and without any questioning he proceeded to attack Mangan, against whom he had some spleen. He had come to the conclusion that Lee was not entitled to use the violence he had used towards Mangan. He would fine Lee £2, but the fine would have been heavier only that Lee was protecting the property of his employers.

FUEL FOR POOR

—oo—

LORD DUNRAVEN'S GENEROSITY

The Earl of Dunraven (writes our Adare correspondent) has kindly presented 28 acres of Knockanes wood, about 2 miles from the village of Adare, to the Parish Council to be divided amongst the poor for fuel for the coming winter. All persons anxious for a portion should apply to the members of the Parish Council. This is his Lordship's second gift to the Council as some months ago he gave 10 acres of the Deer Park, which were divided into plots, all of which are now bearing crops.

RESCUE FROM SHANNON

A plucky rescue from drowning was effected on Wednesday when a boy named Hand fell into the Shannon at Arthur's Quay. Mr. P. O'Sullivan, Arthur's Quay, who happened to see the boy fall in without hesitating, plunged fully clothed into the river and grasped the boy, who had sunk at this time. Mr. O'Sullivan succeeded in bringing the boy to safety.

LIMERICK WEDDING