BALLYAGRAN NOTES

(From Our Correspondent).

First In Eire.

Mr. W. Biggane, Coolasmultane, agent, Irish Assurance Co., who, as recently stated in these notes, secured the sectional and divisional prizes for the best collection (Industrial Branch), has now scored a further distinctive success, in also having secured first place in Eire, as per results just published by the company head-quarter offices. Mr. Biggane has been connected with insurance for many years, and his popularity and business acumen are amply reflected in the foregoing results.

Death of Nun.

Sister M. Enda Murphy, whose death has taken place at Nazareth House, Mallow, was a native of Inch, Ballyagran, and aunt of Mr. Michael Murphy of the same address. Deceased was sister of the late Rev. John Murphy of the Australian Mission, and three other sisters, also deceased, were members of religious orders. In addition, there are four nieces in religion. Most Rev. Dr. Roche, Bishop of Cloyne, presided at the obsequies.

Aeridheacht at Castletown.

Various counter attractions in neighbouring districts adversely affected the attendance at an aeridheacht held at Castletown on Sunday last under the auspices of the Moy-nihan School of Dancing. A special feature of the highly enjoyable programme was the presentation of an Irish play entitled "Lios An Oir" by the pupils of Granagh N.S. Musical selections by the Charleville Brass and Reed Band were much appreciated, while the pupils of the dancing school acquitted themselves very creditably in exhibitions of Irish and figure dancing.

G.A.A. News.

Castletown minor and junior hurling teams have got through the initial stage of the championships with marked success. Quickly following the minors heavy defeat of Knockaderry the junior team gave a very convincing display against Ballingarry in their second round tie on Sunday last, winning a very well contested game by three clear goals. At the
