

KILLALOE NOTES

(From Our Correspondent).

Market.
Wheat realised 8d. per stone Killaloe market on Tuesday

Crop.
There is scarcely a farmer from Killaloe to Whitegate who has not a crop of wheat, which is exceptionally well and not affected by the inclement weather.
Crops are gradually ripening and good results are expected.

Lack of petrol has considerably militated against the home-ing of turf in this district.
There is much demand for motor oil but the want of petrol is a great drawback.

Fishing.
In comparison with former years the catches are small, attributed to the cold, inclement weather.

Rooms.
A few weeks ago there was a rising growth, but since then, no doubt to weather conditions, mushroom has disappeared from our midst.

Fruit crop is not up to expectations here. Apples are much smaller than in the past years.

LANDLESS MEN

OTHER DAYS RECALLED

The Editor, "Limerick Leader." Dear Sir,—There was a time, and so long ago, when a landlord did not buy pardon by "permission" to hold "carnival" or the right to the poor of a few trees for winter fuel. Having heartlessly taken to the full the opportunity made, laws gave them to rob-bative people of their property.
Now, under changed times, much that is morally not justified by an appearance of good will and deep consideration for the less well-off of their late tenants. No doubt, while buying immunity, it can be judiciously hinted that all present ills are a natural result of the loss of our England's kindly laws so wisely administered by themselves.

More than forty years ago, in my own district of Glin, Co. Limerick, I witnessed the eviction of many poor tenants by the landlord. I saw the few pieces of furniture, beds, etc., laid on the roadside on a winter's day to be destroyed by the local hired "thugs." I saw armed police protection, getting to the thatched roofs to break in to prevent re-occupation of the police, specially drafted for the occasion, had left for their posts.

During this period also Michael J.
Dore received the full brunt of the landlord's spite; not for non-payment of rent, but, as the late Professor Arthur Cleary, Dean of Faculty of Law, U.C.D. (himself a son of evicted tenants from Adare) said, "by the greatest able at law I ever experienced." Michael J. Dore was really evicted from his own, by his years of advocacy for the evicted tenants' claims to his own, he made himself most obnoxious to the then landlord.

Michael J. Dore is still deprived of his holding—a holding his father purchased and for years a "rack rent" on.

Why may in 1941 be asked? Why should local landlords, for many years still holding the local town or village on their rent roll, have hundreds of acres of land while poor people, for want of work, must emigrate or live by charity?

Yours faithfully,
EAMONN T. DORE, Limerick,
August 20th, 1941.

FOR SAFETY!

MOTORIST'S PRAYER

The following has been given as the motorist's prayer for ensuring safety on the road:
Each of us to drive through life without skidding into other people's lives.
To reserve our brake linings that we may stop in time.

SCOUT NOTES

(BY SCRIBE.)

4th Limerick—St. Munchins.
On Thursday, during our Annual Week's Camp, we held sports. The events were: bag race, long jump and capture the flag. The bag race was won by Scout H.
O'Mahony. The winner of the long jump was P.L.M. Keogh and second S.P.L. S. O'Brien. The other event resulted in a draw, both teams capturing the flag on three occasions. The winners were presented with cash prizes.

Due to pressure of space I was unable to pay a very well-deserved tribute to our Chairman, Mr. J.
McNamara, who in his own generous way was a great help in organising the Camp. During our stay he was an untiring worker and visited the Camp on several occasions to see that all was well.
Here also I would like to pay a tribute to our S/M Mr. J. Crowley, who led us through a week of happiness in the Camp. Our A.S.M., Mr. P. Ryan, was also to the fore in helping everybody themselves.

Games.
In football St. Munchins defeated St. Michaels by the clear score of two to nil.

General.
We are now settling down to work again and getting our programme for the coming month into shape. All camp utensils have been cleaned and packed away and we are looking forward to next year's Camp with an experienced eye.

Waste Paper.
The collection of paper by St.
Munchins is working smoothly. We have now been on the job six months.

O'Malley, solicitor) will start the race and that the City Manager ful competitors. Each competitor

SWIMMING GALA

KILLALOE FIXTURE

Killaloe is at the moment wearing its rich autumnal attire. The heathery mountains, the brown foliage of the trees, the azure sky, are all reflected in the crystal waters of the Shannon. It looks as if nature and man were vying with each other in preparation for the above-great event on Sunday next. Here on the Shannon will be performed aquatic feats unrivalled by any of a similar kind yet held in our midst or possibly in Southern Ireland. The extensive sheet of water, the scope afforded by an expansive river and lake are attractions which should bring to Royal Kinross the best and rarest competitors and, in addition, an immense crowd of spectators.

The organizers are again un-par-alleled in their efforts to cater for the public, as can be seen on our advertising columns. Each of the many items on the varied programme will be keenly contested.
The number of entries in the various events exceed those of past functions, all the premier clubs in the Province will be well represented. The ladies' and men's diving competitions alone have attracted the most famous competitors in Munster.

The amplifying arrangements will be to night, and, indeed, it
