 look-out for heifers and cows; more could have been sold. Top price was obtained by Mr. P.
 Collins, Cloontra, Sixmilebridge, at £20. In the store department the entry was small, and most of the lots entered were returned unsold.—

VOTES OF SYMPATHY.

Ballysteen Football Club—At meeting held on the 9th inst., vote of sympathy, proposed by John McDonogh and seconded Mr. W. McDonogh, was passed Mr. Denis Naughton, the esteemed Hon. Treasurer of the Club, on death of his father. The meeting then adjourned as a mark of respect.—John Gallagher, Chairman.

Drombanna Creamery Directors
 Drombanna Creamery Directors voted sympathy with the family of the late Patrick J. McGrath, Cal-norry. Mr. Stephen Purcell, presiding the resolution, said that late Mr. McGrath was one of the founders of Drombanna Creamery and in his capacity as Director and milk supplier for the past 30 years through thick and thin he always served this Society with unwavering fidelity.

With heartfelt sympathy Directors mourned his loss, and adjourned their meeting as a mark of respect to his memory.

The Manager and staff associated themselves with the resolution.

Limerick City Coursing Club— a specially convened meeting of Committee of the above Club, sympathy of the members was tendered to the wife and family of the late Mr. McGrath, and his brothers and sisters of the late Ralph Slattery, Ballysimon, V.
 President of the Club, and one of its oldest and best known members.
 Sympathy was also offered to Joseph McGrath (a member of Committee) and the family on death of their father, the late
