beef. Cows accounted for the bulk In affectionate remembrance of our of the supply. Nice two and a half year old fat heifers and bullocks freely bid for; cattle of this class around £15 to £17 mark ted. Fresh. heiferish cows bid for and cashed, rates around last week's quotations. Rough and oldish sorts dull, and difficult to negotiate; market in this department overstocked. Short supply of stores, trade quiet; buyers prices were rea- cautious; lots cashed made current hound sales held in low prices. In comparison with lednesday by Mr. last week the turnover was not as ictioneer. The de- good. WEEKLY DAIRY MARKET. Tuesday, Sept. 23rd-The entry at to-day's market totalled a full seasonable supply; the larger proportion being heifers. The class was not up to the standard of recent markets. Strong attendance of buyers wanting the best. Trade promising lots was steady, and in the case of a cow or heifer showing milking qualities prices were firm around last Tuesday's rates. Dairy proprietors want cows and heifers with quality and substance, and for this class there is good demand. More good cows and heifers could have been sold. Top price for dairy cows obtained by Mr. C. McNamara, Singland, at £25 10s. Choice cows and heifers met a favourable trade, the right class making full current rates, and had plenty of buyers; a to be offered was bit of colour and quality means a Fair clearance. Promising lot. heifers, £18 to £22; ordinary, £14 to ease for 690 years, £17; dairy cows, promising, £19 10s. t of £7 15s.; P.L.V., to £25 10s.—Wm. B. Fitt and Co.,
