ent that the ree asked was exorant. Mr. Houlihan said he was entitled raise every point on behalf of client. No evidence had been ven that Dr. Hogan was even the . Surgeon in Cashel, and the fully, nditions of Employment itted to the Court by Mr. Walshe uld not be considered. The Justice said the Conditions Employment were prescribed by e General Regulations of 1924. Mr. Houlihan—Which are out of int now and cannot be obtained.

The Justice said that before ving his decision he had to conder the point raised as to regisation; the father's privity to the leged contract with Dr. Hogan d his liability to pay a doctor as ell as a hospital; and the position between Dr. Hogan and the Tiprary Board of Health. tient went into Cashel Hospital ho determines whether he is to be eated as a private patient or not? Mr. Walshe-The only defence ade by the defendant now is that e charge is exorbitant. All the her points were raised by his licitor.

The case was allowed to stand r a week for decision.

JUDGEMENT DELIVERED. At the Court on Friday, District istice Gleeson delivered judgeent in favour of Dr. Hogan.

The Justice said that it was ontended for Duggan that Dr. logan had not proved that his ame appeared on the Medical egister (if it did not he could not ie for the recovery of fees), but ne doctor was employed by South ipperary Board of Health, from hich the Court was entitled to ssume that his name did appear n the Register.

The second point made against re claim was whether there was ny privity of contract between the laintiff and the defendant as the ction was not brought against the oy. On that point he held that buggan's authority as parent, so ar as it concerned the medical eatment of his child, had been elegated to the authorities in cockwell College, who consented his removal to the hospital. Mr. I. Houlihan, solicitor for buggan, asked for a case stated, nd the Justice said he would repare a case,

I trust it is only necessary to draw attention to the matter to have times changed, and that same will not cause any inconvenience to officials or players, but result in increased attendance—Yours faith-

"FIRST THINGS FIRST."
