AN ADVOCATE OF PROTECTION terinary surgeon would not Always deeply interested in the nend the Limerick County land question and in economics, having any team visit the Judge O'Donnell was one of the first members of the Irish Parlia-T. Malone It was a peculiar mentary Party to advocate Protecent in view of the fact that tion. He was associated with the bably had more to do with Gaelic League from its inception. orse show than he would have and was a member of the Executive Committee of that body when Purcell-At the Council meetcompulsory Irish in the National Tralee every argument was University (was decided upon. p that Tipperary should be was Chairman of the Tralee and ay. Paddy O'Keeffe was there, Dingle Railway from 1905 to 1918. e said that they were in touch the Department and that Tip-DIED IN SCOTLAND would not be allowed to play. . Chairman (Rev. P. Fogarty, ----00-4 If there was any consistency retary—It would not have LIMERICK SOLICITOR ery easy to nominate Limerick after two games in the 1940

PASSES AWAY

The death occurred at Greenock,

Scotland, on Saturday, of Mr.

Michael Goodbody, solicitor, third son of the late Mr. Gerald E.

Goodbody, Woodsdown, Limerick.

The deceased, who was only 26 years of age, met with an accident some time ago while travelling to Canada, and never recovered from his injury. He was admitted a solicitor at the Hilary Term in 1938, and subsequently entered the firm of Messrs. Fitt and Co., Limerick, where he practised his profession until the outbreak of war. He was a well-known practitioner in the Limerick Courts, and his early death will be learned with genuine regret by his colleagues in Limerick City and County. The deepest sympathy will be extended to his bereaved mother, Mrs. Hilda Goodbody, and to his brother, Mr.

G. M. Goodbody, who succeeded his father only a short time ago as a director of Messrs. Ranks (Ireland), Ltd.

CRUSHED BETWEEN TRAMS

00-

THREE KILLED

crushed between two tramcars in Bootle, Liverpool, to-day, says the Press Association. The men were hurrying across the road to board a stationary tram when they were trapped between the front of it and

-00---RONG PROTEST FROM CONFERENCE large and representative conice of delegates from the cotive societies in Co. Limerick North Cork was held in the Charleville, last chial Hall,

, at which Senator O'Dwyer ded. The recent increase in untancy charges by the Irish s was under discussion when following resolution, proposed enator O'Dwyer and seconded

Ir. J. J. Lynch (Kantogher Coative Agricultural and Dairy ety, Ltd.), was unanimously ted:-"That this conference, y so far as

ding Committee

at the present time.

with the hurling match.

pionship, there were only two

Purcell-To use strong lan-the Central Council did not a damn about us. They wanheir semi-final and final. I more blame for them than Board expressed the wish

Tipperary would contest the

ANK CHARGES

ter final against Cork.

between them and Cork.

vould not mind.

ne.

esentative of the Co-Operative eties in the Co. Limerick and th Cork, protests strongly nst the proposal of the Irish is to increase their accountancy ges to their customers on the nd that such charge would be uitable and unjustifiable, especo-operative eties are concerned, whose unts with the banks are one of chief sources of revenue py of this resolution be sent to secretary of the Irish Banks are detained in hospital. and that a tram approaching from the opposite direction. The tram had to be essed by the Irish banks. That backed out before the men could be released. Two of the injured proportions of to-day-a landm overlooking the Golden Vale East Limerick. She administered the funds w provided the National School the Boarding School attached to convent, and by her wise cou bibleticij cirober bj in Doon to be alternately F

Mother Superior or Mother As tant, according as the regulati of Canon Law permitted. Fi seven years of authority in a c munity that was ever develop years of selfless service and fl less success as an administra loving obedience from religi of varying temperaments! W greater tribute to her persona could have been paid by a community of ten Sisters.

her death she was mourned b community of seventy-four. F the modest parochial house

Father Hickey, to which she ca with the first band of pioneers, saw the material structure of D

Convent develop to its impos

Mother Agnes came to Doon generations of religious?

Fifty-seven years of loyalty

Fifty-se

changing, growing!

and patience guided them to success they now enjoy. Du her administration the commu opened branch houses and sta them-in the County Home, Thu (1887); Cappamore (1896), New (1901). To the courageous in tive and ever-watchful care

Mother Agnes is due the prospe to-day of these foundations. A ZEALOUS AND SAINTL . WORKER. Not for these things, however for the success with which blessed her administration of temporal, affairs of the Doon munity, not for these do we m passion with her all her life.

resources of the Convent wer ways strained to help the n

When they failed she perso the loss of Mother Agnes. Ra do we mourn because a zealous saintly worker has been rem from the invisible army of chosen ones of the Master. love and care for the poor w organised concerts, etc., to pr Three soldiers were killed and six them with food and clothing. others injured when they were her kindly heart the local > always got the cheering won encouragement and the tears shed over her grave testific their appreciation and genuine row.

> > Her love of little children remarkable. How often have her in the Convent grounds rounded by a bevy of little cents all eager to hold her to talk to her, to walk with > > even to pray with her, and obv to listen to their chattering w greatest brecreation. A co