

DEATH OF ABBEYFEALE TRADER

The death of Mr. James D. McEnery, shopkeeper, of Bridge Street, Abbeyfeale, is much regretted. Deceased, who was only 37 and a very popular young man amongst all classes and numerous relatives and friends in West Limerick, had been ill for some weeks. The attendance of the general public at the interment was extremely large and representative, the prayers at the graveside being read by the Rev. J. Houlihan, C.C., and Rev. W. J. Meade, C.C. Very sincere and widespread sympathy is felt for his bereaved widow and family. A large number of Mass cards were placed on the bier.

PRESENTATION TO BANK OFFICIAL

A presentation was made at Leen's Hotel, Abbeyfeale, on behalf of the managers and officials of the National, Munster and Leinster and Provincial Banks, and a number of friends, to Mr. P. Fleming on the occasion of his approaching marriage.

Mr. J. Crowley, Manager, Munster and Leinster Bank, who presided, handed a cheque to the guest of the evening, a very popular official, who gratefully acknowledged the compliment paid him.

LIMERICK HORSE FAIR

The Munster quarterly horse fair held in Limerick yesterday was well stocked, but exchanges were few. Generally speaking, trade was dull, there being no inquiry whatever for bloodstock. Hunters, or horses likely to make hunters, attracted no interest, and all such animals remained unsold. Horses suitable for farm and van work received some attention, but as exporters were conspicuous by their absence competition was not keen. Those sold realised from £30 to £40, but one exceptionally fine specimen realised £60.

TRALEE INQUEST

A verdict of death from carbon monoxide, occurring accidentally at his work, was returned at the inquest by Dr. Sheahan, District Coroner, and a jury on Timothy Quinlan, a fitter, of Tralee,

Lever Bros. (Ireland) Ltd., for personal injuries and other loss sustained through negligence in the manufacture or packing of a bar of Sunlight soap.

Mr. M. Binchy, K.C., who with Mr. O. Keane (instructed by Mr. R. Geary) appeared for plaintiff, said that plaintiff was washing her leg when she cut a vein. The leg bled and subsequently became septic. She was laid up for nearly two months. She had bought the soap with which she was washing her leg some time before. When she had cut her leg she found a piece of metal in the soap.

Mr. J. M. Fitzgerald, K.C., who with Mr. A. D. Pringle (instructed by Messrs. Hayes and Sons) appeared for the defence, said that the piece of metal was a pin, and the defendants contended that physically or mechanically it could not have been in the soap when it left the factory. As a result of the boiling and filtering processes it was technically impossible for a pin to be in the manufactured soap. There were no signs of rust on the pin.

A decree for £55 with costs and expenses was granted.

BRITAIN'S OLDEST TRAVELLER

Mr. Thomas Hussey, who, three years ago, claimed to be the oldest commercial traveller "on the road," died on Monday at Bristol, aged 93. He made his first aeroplane flight from Bristol to Southampton when he was 90, and about the same time issued a £10 challenge to any man of his own age to travel to London, play a game of bowls, return to Bristol and play a game of skittles without a rest. The challenge was accepted, but the rival failed to appear.

WAS NATIVE OF LIMERICK

Mr. Henry Moore, late manager National Bank, Ltd., Longford, who died at 32 Rathmines Park, Dublin, was a native of Limerick City. He served in the National Bank for over 45 years and retired at the age of 65 about 22 years ago.
