BALLYLANDERS NOTES

(From Our Correspondent).

5" Drive.
 The "45" drive in aid of the Church Improvements Fund will take place in the Schoolroom on November 1st. Patrons should send their cards immediately in order to enable the committee to start on schedule.

the Fair.
 The monthly cattle fair was held here on Wednesday, 22nd October.
 The number of cattle on offer was small but buyers were plentiful and the fair was cleared early. Young cows fetched £12; old cows, £6; calves, six months, sold, at from £5 to £5 10s.; year and a half cattle, £2.

Bread and Flour Shortage.
 The shortage of bread and flour in the locality during the beginning of this week was so acute that it necessitated the use of potatoes for all meals. Modern youth became alarmed at this. They considered it a retrograde step. The old people smiled at the youths disapproval, but remained silent, and went back in spirit to the days when this was a common occurrence.

New Houses.
 At last the new town houses for Ballylanders, so long in contemplation, are being erected. Mr. Joseph Noonan, Kilfinane, is the contractor. When we remember that Mr.
 Noonan has to his credit 19 new houses at Hospital, a new barrack at Ballylanders, a new school at Clabheny, and more new houses at Kilfinane, besides many reconstruction jobs, we know how thorough he can do his business.
 Those for whom these houses are being built will not have long to wait now.

seen in the district.
The Fair.
 The October fair was small with a good attendance of buyers and an all round improvement in prices compared with previous fairs. 3 year-old bullocks made for £17 to £22; 2 year-olds from £14 to £18; yearling heifers from £9 to £11; yearling bullocks from £8 to £12; good fat cows from £15 to £20; springing cows from £14 to £24; fat sheep from £3 to £3 10s.; store pigs from £2 to £3 each. At the fortnightly pig market 50 fat pigs were disposed of at the Government prices, while stores were on the same level as the fair-day prices.

Obituary.
 The death which took place on Saturday last at his residence, Main Street, Charleville, of Mr.
 Joe O'Donnell removes from the town a well-known and a highly popular member of the community.
 "Joe" as he was known to the public, was a character in himself. A well-known stage figure, his services were always at the disposal of promoters of concerts or entertainments organised for philanthropic purposes. To his bereaved widow, daughter and relatives sincere sympathy will be extended in their sorrow. The funeral, which was of very large dimensions, took place to Holy Cross Cemetery on Monday afternoon. Rev. Father J. Burke, P.P., assisted by Rev. Father J. O'Brien, C.C., Rev. Dr. T. Brown, C.C., and Rev. Father Daly, Dublin, officiated at the graveside.

London Tragedy.
 The remains of the late Mr.
 Michael O'Connor, who died in Westminster Hospital on Saturday week, and of his brother, Mr.
 John O'Connor, who was killed on the same day, arrived in Charleville on Monday afternoon by rail from Dublin. High Mass for the repose of their souls was celebrated on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock and the obsequies took place to Holy Cross Cemetery on the same day at 3 o'clock p.m.

New Officer.
 Twenty-nine cadets from the Military College at the Curragh received their Commissions as Second Lieutenants from the Minister for Defence on Tuesday.
 Amongst the list is Mr. John Ryan, of Newtownbarry, Charleville. Second son of Mr. Thomas and Mrs. Ryan, Lieut. Ryan is a past pupil of the Christian Brothers Schools, Charleville.

NEWPORT BRID

(From Our Correspondent)

Entertainment.
 At the Muintir na Tire Hall here, on last Sunday evening, a enjoyable entertainment was provided, when students from Benedictine Priory presented a series of dramatic plays, and well known artistes from Limerick and Tipperary rendered some interesting items. Music was supplied on the occasion by Mr. Joseph and his band.

The Plays.
 The presentation of the plays which were excellently performed by the various artistes, was highly appreciated as regards amusing entertainment. The plays were enjoyed immensely by the entire audience, who testified their appreciation by their applause.

The Fair.
 The Newport fair held on October was of average size, but was better than at recent times with a considerable advance in prices. Bonhams were scarce and very dear.

Quotations.
 The following were the quotations:—Weanling calves, £8 10s.; stores, 1½ years, £11 15s.; 2½ years, £14 to £19; cows, £16 to £22 10s.; beef cows, heifers, £14 to £21; bulls, £16 10s.; bonhams, £2 10s.
 £4 7s. 6d.

Church Anniversary.
 At Newport Church on last day the seventh anniversary of the opening was observed. High Mass was celebrated on the occasion and a special sermon was delivered at the evening devotions.
 Various ceremonies were attended by extremely large congregations.

USED WHITE FL

BAKERY OWNER FIN

Thomas Houlihan, senior, Lower Cork Street, Mitchelstown, was charged by the Minister for Supplies, before Mr. G. P. O'Connell, B.L., D.J., at Mitchelstown, with using, in the manufacture of bread, white flour.

Mr. D. Casey, State Solicitor, stated that the defendant's son had his bakery business. They
