

of the British Government creating Irish political prisoners. or the burning of Kilmorna se and its contents, Madame Jañez was awarded £25,500, at owel Quarter Sessions.

TOO SLIPPERY

CONDITION OF CLARE ROADS

r. C. Halpin complained at a ting of the Clare Co. Council many of the main roads of e were like a sheet of glass. n the result that horse traffic d not use them. He recomded that the Co. Surveyor be ed to leave a four foot passage horse drawn traffic.
ne recommendation was adopted.

RAVERY RECOGNISED

he Royal Humane Society, Lon-has awarded a parchment ificate to Fergus A. Jones (27), bourer, of Cobh, Co. Cork, for ing on August 30th saved an nown child, aged about three, n the harbour, Eastern Camber, h, who fell from the slipway the harbour. Jones jumped fully clad, effecting the rescue.

HOUSE BURNED

cottier's thatched house at erhayes, Abbeyfeale, went on presumably accidentally, and burned out while the owner, Crimmin, was away for a few rs on Friday evening.

for care in administering gifts. ne Society of St. Vincent de I in Limerick and in Rathkeale. the British Legion Clothing board are, in my own and ntless other people's personal rience, admirable, careful and assed channels of help. ere the footwear fund opened our columns, Sir, I suggest that s in money or in kind be (if desired by donors) marked for or other of the above and all ld be carefully acknowledged. this appeal is in no way suged by them, except in so far sad facts have come to my ce through close contact with and owing to the eagerness which any footwear has been ived by these societies.

ices are rising and "he gives e who gives quickly." In a few ks comes the birthday of the nd of the poor. Who says tee St. Peter's Hall, T. Conway, High Commissioner's Office, London; M. Hutch, Buttevant; Mrs. J.

J. Condon, Cork; Sheila Byrne, B.A., Tullow; K. Dowling, Fermoy; Captain M. Murray, Dublin; Mrs.
Hubert Barry, Knockaney; Mrs. Joe Barry, Knockaney; Mrs. T. Mitchell, Ballybricken; Dr. and Mrs. T. Kelly, Co. Kildare; Maurice and Nora Donworth, Bruff; Kilfinane Parish Council; P. W. Noonan, Knockaney; R. McCarthy, Dublin.

MRS. JOHN BRACKEN.

The death took place on October 24th at her residence, Old Pike, Rathkeale, of Mrs. John Bracken.
A woman with a kindly and charitable disposition, the late Mrs.
Bracken had endeared herself to those who made her acquaintance since she came to reside here a few years ago. To her husband and family, who are held in high esteem, general sympathy is extended in their very sad bereavement. The remains were removed to Croagh Church on Saturday, 25th October, and the funeral, which was extremely large, took place to the cemetery at Croagh on Sunday. The Rev. T. Murphy, P.P., officiated at the graveside.

The chief mourners were Mr.
John Bracken (husband); Kitty, Betty, May (daughters); Patrick, John and Joe (sons). (c)

Fortify your Kidneys!

UNDER present conditions most people are easy victims to kidney complaints. Overwork and worry greatly increase the task of nature's filters. If they become congested and slacken, harmful impurities remain in the system and are carried by the blood stream to all parts of the body, setting up

BACKACHE, URINARY AND BLADDER TROUBLES, LUMBAGO, RHEUMATIC PAINS, GETTING UP AT NIGHT, RENAL DROPSY, INFLAMED JOINTS.

Don't wait to be laid up! Take Doan's Backache Kidney Pills. This special kidney medicine gives sluggish kidneys the help they need, cleansing and stimulating them to renewed activity and health. You can rely upon Doan's. They have helped thousands.
Why not you?

Ask for DOAN'S, 1/3, 3/-, 5/-.

RECENT WILL

Miss Elizabeth Grace Waller, of 27 Hill Avenue, Worcester, formerly of Horsham, Sussex, who died on the 28th August last, aged 53 years, daughter of late William honestly meant and had only objective—the good of his land.

WHOLLY ABSURD SUGGES

People of smaller minds than self have often suggested that mond was merely pro-British was anxious to curry favour England. It would be impossib course, to come to a more gr less and absurd conclusion.
John Redmond merely wanted in the good graces of Englan had long before then ample o tunities for gratifying such tions. His great qualities a orator, a statesman and a g man would at any time, if he wished, brought him to the highest positions in British po But he sacrificed a life of honour and comfort—which could easily have at home in Ir —for a life of great prominence emolument in Britain, simp play his part in the fight fo country's rights and welfare.

The irony of it all is that craven British politicians p him false his own countr joined them in doing him c He could have played to the g at home when the war brok and become a cheap hero if s ambition were in his compos

CO. LIMERICK HU

OPENING MEET AT T FOUR ELMS

After a night of hard fro sun made a welcome appea and it seemed an ideal huntin for the opening meet of the C Limerick Hounds at Four but scent was never too good to a cold north breeze. H were in good fettle after a sw ful cubbing season, accountin a brace each morning out. attendance was good, consid transport difficulty. Howeve ever popular "bike" came t rescue.

Prompt to time hounds r off. Mrs. Alexander, the po lady Master in charge, with Regan, First Whip, and Creagh.

Hounds opened promptly. the "music" told us a few were on foot. One was cho another was forced out with pack on his brush and face Ballinagarde, but after givi few fields changed his mind went to ground near the