hardly up to the demand. This class drew sharp competition and were cashed at full current rates. Nice dairy cows and heifers were wanted; secondary cows and heifers, also old cows, hard to place. All round best rates of last week were hardly maintained. Good clearance. Mr. John McInerney, Rathlahine South, Sixmilebridge, topped the market for a calved cow at £34. Choice cows, £30 to £34; promising, £25 10s. to £27; ordinary, £14 10s. to £19. In calf heifers, promising, £21 to £24; ordinary, £14 to £20 10s.—Wm. B. Fitt and Co., Auctioneers.

CATTLE MARKETS, MULGRAVE STREET, LIMERICK.

Weekly Market, Saturday, Dec. 6th—Dairy cows and incalf heifers, entry somewhat heavier than last week. Scarcity of good cows; some very good incalf heifers on offer. These attracted keen competition and showed a big advance on previous rates. Top price for incalf heifers was obtained by Mr. Madden, Athlunkard, at £28 5s., the runner-up being Mr. C. O'Neill, Drombanna, at £27 10s., for a promising heifer. In this department a heavy turnover was effected. Dairy cows, best, £25 15s. to £27 5s.; others, £14 to £25. In calf and calved heifers, £27 10s. to £28 5s.; second run, £19 10s. to £22; others, £16 5s. to £18 10s.

Fat cattle and stores. The entry in this department was heavier than usual, and with a full attendance of buyers; prices showed an advance, especially in the forward cattle. Stores short of condition were slow to change hands. Fat heifers and bullocks, £19 10s. to £21 5s.; second run, £12 10s. to £17 10s. All the strong and fat cattle on offer were sold. One and a half year old bullocks and heifers, best £9 10s. to £11 5s.; others, £6 to £8 10s. Calves—The inclement weather affected the entries in this department. Several lots of good calves, which were entered, were absent. Good selling trade for the right class. Best lots, £6 14s. to £6 17s. 6d.; others, £4 5s. to £5 7s. 6d.—Louis de Courcy, Auctioneer.

LOUIS DE COURCY'S PROPERTY SALES

On Tuesday last at the Salesrooms, 7 Glentworth St., Limerick, Mr. Louis de Courcy, auctioneer, offered for sale by auction the single storey residence known as "Ritaville," Cork Road, about one mile from the city. The premises stand on about one acre of land and are held from the Irish Land Commission subject to the revised annuity of 13/6; P.L.V. £6 5s. Bidding opened at £200 and advanced to £410, at which price the premises were withdrawn, but were sold immediately afterwards to Mr. T. O'B. Kelly, solr., in trust, for the sum of £450 and auction fees. Messrs. P. J. O'Sullivan and Son, solrs., had carriage of sale, the result of which was considered quite satisfactory. The residence known as "Thomond," 9 Ashbourne Avenue, withdrawn on Dec. 3rd, has since been sold by private treaty.

At the recent examinations of the London College of Music, Miss Teresa McSweeney, 23 Emmet Place, Limerick, who passed with honours in the Elementary Grade, was awarded a special prize for excellence in pianoforte playing. She is a pupil of Miss M. O'Sullivan, L.L.C.M., 18 Lower Hartstone Street, Limerick. (Advt.)

December, 1937. Masses offered at Sacred Heart Church.

Inserted by her sons and daughters
Scully (Second Anniversary) In sad and loving memory of our darling child, Pauline Scully, Ballywilliam, Rathkeale, who died on the 10th, December, 1939.

Her smile is gone for ever,
 Her hand we cannot touch;
 Dear Jesus, hear our pleading
 For the child we loved so much.
 —Inserted by her loving mammy, daddy, brothers and sisters.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

Clancy—John and Anne Clancy, brother and sister of the late Miss Johanna Clancy, Park Bar, Edward Street, Limerick, wish to return sincere thanks to the many kind friends who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement; to those who sent Mass cards, telegrams and messages of sympathy, and also to those who attended the funeral. They trust that all will accept this notice as a token of their sincere gratitude.

Broderick—Mrs. Broderick and family wish to return sincere thanks to the many kind friends who sympathised with them in the recent demise of Patrick Broderick, late of 21 Rossa Avenue; to those who sent Mass cards and letters of sympathy and attended the funeral. They wish to particularly thank the A.F.S. Group of Messrs. Rank (Ireland), Ltd., for their attendance at the funeral. They trust that all will accept this acknowledgment as a token of their sincere gratitude.

Hanrahan—Mrs. Webster, 2 McNamara Terrace, Limerick, sister of the late Thomas Hanrahan, wishes to thank all those who sympathised with her in her recent bereavement and all those who attended the funeral; those who sent Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy, especially the Harbour employees, City Manager and officers of the Council and trust this will be accepted by all in grateful acknowledgment.

McGarry (nee Hogan) The husband, parents, brothers and sisters of the late Mrs. Timothy G. McGarry, Knockeen, Pallasgreen, wish to return sincere thanks to all those who sent Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy on their recent sad bereavement; also to those who attended the funeral, and trust that this will be accepted in grateful acknowledgment by all.

O'Carroll—Miss Mai O'Carroll, late of Rich Hill, Lisnagry, wishes to return sincere thanks to all those who sent Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy, personal calls and attendance at funeral. To Sergeant Kennedy, the Gardai, Castleconnell, and to all those who expressed their kind sympathy in her recent bereavement. Trusting this may be accepted by all in grateful acknowledgment. (f13p)

O'Connell—Mrs. B. O'Connell, Clare View Hotel, Glin, wishes to return her very sincere thanks to all those kind friends who sympathised with her on the death of her dear son, Joseph Michael, killed in Egypt on the 9th August, 1941. She feels deeply grateful to those who sent letters of condolence, and trusts that this notice will suffice as a general acknowledgment, as it would be impossible to reply individually.

VOTES OF SYMPATHY.

Croom Group L.S.F. At a meeting of the Croom Group L.S.F. held at Croom on December 9th, the following vote of sympathy was passed: "That we, the members of the L.S.F., tender to the Moriarty family, and in particular to our colleagues, James and Gilbert, our sincere sympathy on the death of their mother, R.I.P. The meeting adjourned as a mark of respect."

Limerick No. 1 Branch, Federation of Irish Rail & Road Workers. At a meeting held on Sunday, Dec. 7th, a vote of sympathy was passed with Mr. Tom Maher, of Kilkenny, on the sad demise of his brother, Gerard P. Maher, G.S.I., also to James and Hugh O'Neill, on the death of their brother, Fireman P. O'Neill.

Limerick Savings Bank The following resolution of sympathy was adopted at a meeting of the Trustees and Managers of Limerick Savings Bank held on Wednesday, December 10th. The Trustees and Managers desire to place on record their sense of the great loss the Bank has sustained on the death of their late Secretary, Mr. Charles H. F. M. Fitt had served on the staff of the Bank for over sixty-five years and was previously for some time its Honorary Manager. For the greater portion of that period he was in the position of Secretary with full responsibility for all the working arrangements. The Trustees and Managers have always felt such complete confidence in his wisdom and ability that their own task was greatly eased and they also had such cordial and friendly relations with Mr. Fitt that they deeply and sincerely regret his death. They would desire also to record the loss Mr. Fitt is to his native city, which he served in various public positions for a very long time and earned the respect of all his fellow-citizens. To Mrs. Fitt they offer sincere sympathy in her bereavement.

Pallasgreen Branch, Irish Red Cross At a special meeting of the above, held on Tuesday night, 9th December, 1941, Mr. E. P. Henry, Chairman, presiding, a vote of sympathy with Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bourke, New Pallas, on their very sad bereavement occasioned by the death of their child Paddy, was proposed by Miss M. MacNamara, seconded by Miss H. Corboy, and passed in silence, all members standing. The meeting then adjourned as a mark of respect. M. Irwin, Hon. Sec.

Race Dairy Society At a specially convened meeting of the Race Dairy Society, a vote of sympathy was extended to the Manager, Mr. Michael Bourke, on the very lamentable death of his son, Patrick Michael Bourke, Secretary, Pallasgreen, Co. Limerick.
