

Sad City Tragedy

Boy Killed at Ballinacurra

Collision with Pony and Cart

A very sad tragedy occurred on Monday evening about 6 o'clock in Ballinacurra by which a young boy named Brian Walsh, The Bungalow, Raheen, aged about 14 years, lost his life.

It appears that young Walsh was cycling home when he was attacked by other boys of his own age with snowballs. In endeavouring to avoid the missiles he collided with a pony and cart. He sustained severe injuries and died in the Co. Infirmary on Monday night at 10.30.

He is a son of Mr John Walsh, N.T., St John the Baptist School, Killalee, with whom the greatest sympathy is felt in his bereavement.
