

Limerick Auctioneer Bereaved

---

Death of Mr. Patrick Gillespie

Many members of the Irish Auctioneers' Association, and a large concourse of the general public in Clare, Limerick and Tipperary, attended the funeral of Mr. Patrick Gillespie, which took place from Clonlara Church to Mount St. Laurence Cemetery, Limerick. Deceased, who was a native of Co. Sligo, was father-in-law of Mr. Louis de Courcy, Mount Catherine House, Clonlara, Co. Clare, and Glentworth Street, Limerick, who is a well-known auctioneer. Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated in Clonlara Church by Very Rev. P. J. Canon Barrett, P. P.; Clonlara, other priests present being Rev. T. Hehir, C. C., Clonlara; Very Rev. Fr. Moloney, P. P., Parteen; Rev. Fr. O'Connell, C. C., do; Very Rev. Dr. Cowper, C. C., St. Michael's, Limerick; Rev. Fr. Gubbins, S. J., and Rev. Fr. Murphy, S. J., Limerick.

The chief mourners were:—Mrs. Kathleen de Courcy and Mrs. Evelyn Fallon daughters; Mr. Louis de Courcy, M. I. A., and Dr. Fallon, Gort, Co. Galway, sons-in-law; John and Cyril de Courcy, grandchildren; Mr. P. J. O'Flanagan and Mr. R. de Courcy, B. E., relatives. Numerous Mass cards and messages of sympathy were received.