
Three Sudden Deaths In Limerick

Alphonsus O'Malley, 2 Hogan Terrace, Windmill street, collapsed and died this morning at the Loco. Works, REXBORO' Road, where he was employed.

A medical certificate was forthcoming and an inquest was not deemed necessary.

While proceeding on his way home last night Patrick McNamara, Lower Park, aged about 60 years, collapsed and succumbed shortly afterwards.

In this case neither was an inquest deemed necessary.

A young woman named Mary O'Connor, 2 Josses Lane, off Mungret street, also collapsed and died at her own home.

An inquest was not considered necessary.
