
Clare Priest's Death in U.S.A.

Rev Patrick McNamara, a native of Lisbreen, Bodyke, county Clare, who died in the U.S., was born in 1868, and was educated at the Diocesan College, Ennis, and All Hallows College, Dublin, where he was ordained in 1891.

After having served in various parishes of Dubuque, Iowa, he retired in August from parochial duties and was appointed chaplain to Mount Mercy Hospital, Cedar Rapids.

He is survived by three brothers and two sisters—Messrs Jeremiah D and Michl McNamara, Elmira, New York; Mr Francis McNamara, Lisbreen; Mrs P Fahy, Scariff; and Mrs P Malone, Ogonelloe. Rev P J Malone, St Flannan's College, Ennis, is a grand-nephew.
