

Death of Mrs Ward, Rathkeale

Mother of Well-Known Jockeys

The death occurred at Rathkeale of Mrs Mary Ward, The Square, a member of a well known and highly respected local family. Deceased was mother of two well known jockeys—Denny and Michael Ward—both of whom were unfortunately killed in the war. A daughter of deceased—Miss Mary Ward—lives in Paris with the family and is well known in the city but not her name is well known in the city. She was a very fine looking woman and was well known in the city. She was a very fine looking woman and was well known in the city. She was a very fine looking woman and was well known in the city.