

---

Drowning Fatality in the County.

---

A man named John Fitzgerald, Ballycubane, County Limerick, was drowned while fishing in the River Maigue, near Clounauna, on Sunday. The deceased, who was a married man with eight children, was an employe of the E S B.

A verdict of death from asphyxia, following drowning, was returned at an inquest held in Parkawell by Dr R O'Leary, Coroner. It transpired at the inquiry that the deceased, accompanied by an eight-years old son, was fishing on the river bank when he slipped and fell into the water.

---