

Tragic Discovery.

---

Body Found in a Drain

Mr M E Cassen, solicitor, Coroner for West Limerick, held an inquest into the circumstances surrounding the death of Edward Walsh, labourer, aged about 60, of Ballygulleen, Kilmeedy. The deceased's body had been found face downwards in about nine inches of water in a drain not far from his home. Medical evidence to the effect that the deceased died from heart failure having been tendered, the Coroner returned a verdict accordingly.

---