

Death of Mr. P. J. McGrath

The death occurred on Monday at his residence, Cahirnorry House, Ballyneety, of Mr Patrick J McGrath at an advanced age. The deceased was brother of the late Dr M S McGrath, who was for a number of years Superintendent Medical Officer of Health for Limerick city, and father of Rev Thomas McGrath, O.M.I., Johannesburg, and Rev Mother Canice, Convent of Mercy, Doon. Deceased was a splendid type of Irishman, a sound and genuine Nationalist, and a man who in his younger days took an active interest in public affairs, either as a valued member of the old Limerick Board of Guardians or the Limerick No. 1 Rural District Council. To his bereaved family and relatives we tender our deepest sympathy on the passing of one so beloved by all.

The remains were removed this afternoon to Donoughmore Church, where High Mass will be celebrated to-morrow (Wednesday) at 11 a.m. (new time), and the funeral will take place immediately afterwards to Castleconnell.
