

Limerick's Hurling Captain Bereaved

The death of Mrs J Cafferty, a native of Ballynahoun, Croom, Co Limerick, which occurred recently at Preston, Lancashire, has occasioned very deep regret.

Deceased, who went to England about twenty years ago, was daughter of Mrs Roche and the late Michael Roche, Ballynahoun, and sister of Jim Roche, the well known and all-Ireland hurler, who captains the Limerick team this year.

Much sympathy has been expressed with the Roche family, many messages of condolence having been received from leading Gaels and G.A.A. bodies throughout the country, and, as a mark of respect, the West Limerick G.A.A. Board called off the senior hurling final in which Croom and Rathkea's were engaged.
