

County Limerick Gael's Sad Death

The death of Mr Edmond O'Shaughnessy Ballinvoher, Askeaton, at the early age of 33, has occasioned widespread sorrow. He was a well known member of the Ballysteen Football Club (West Limerick Junior champions).

Mr O'Shaughnessy died as the result of an operation in the County Infirmary, Limerick.

There was a large attendance at the removal of the remains from Limerick to Ballysteen Church and at the funeral to the family burial ground at Castletown. Members of the Ballysteen Football Club acted as pallbearers and formed a guard of honour at the funeral.

Rev P J Casey P.P. Askeaton, read the prayers at the graveside.

Chief mourners were—Mrs E O'Shaughnessy (widow); Mrs J O'Shaughnessy (mother); Mrs J McKnight and Mrs Walsh (sisters); Miss A Hackett (sister in law); Messrs John, Chris. and Henry Hackett (brothers in law).
