

---

Boy Fatally Injured

---

Fall From Railway Bridge

A four years old boy, Patrick Burke, son of Mr Michael Burke, New Pallas, Co Limerick, died in the County Infirmary, Limerick, on Saturday night as the result of injuries received when he fell from the railway bridge at New Pallas. It appears that the deceased was playing with other children on the bridge when he fell through an opening to the ground below, a distance of about 20 feet, and sustained concussion.

---