Hams.

The whist drive run last Friday at under the auspices of the A. drew a good house. The going to the posters—"Hams, as"—caught the imagination of people. Detective Officer Fitzgald got one of them and Mrs. T. has the other. Whist cashes went to Guard McCormick Miss K. Cahill, Mr. A. Mortimer M.C.

Amusements.

There is a scarcity of cigarettes, ches and tea, but there is no dearth of amusements in the place. Play companies have been within the last few weeks; we have pictures. There are st drives and dances. All tastes being catered for, so there is no fear of any one dying from

Res.

At the present there is a housing problem here, but it seems near solution. The situation going to be met, it appears, by building timber structures opposite Creveens and back at Leahies. The latter site is ideally situated on the river front, giving a fine view of the flying-boats. Engineers have been at both places. The original intention was to build in the neighbourhood. Undoubtedly these houses will be a boon to the strangers who have to reside miles from their work, as Foynes was not prepared for its influx.

Congratulations.

Mr. J. Staunton, of the Meteorological Station, was warmly congratulated by his many friends on receiving a gold medal as one of the Kerry All-Ireland junior football champions. He is an all-round athlete, excelling in practically every sport.

Land Division.

At a recent meeting of the Berrinstown Land Settlement Committee a strong resolution was passed demanding the immediate division of the Smyth estate. Many of them with uneconomic holdings would be of greater benefit to the tenants if they got portion of this land. More tillage is essential and all farmers there could till more of their own land if the Land Commission did its duty by breaking up the ranch, much of which, though arable, would provide a good rough range for cattle.

ATHEA NOTES

(From Our Correspondent).

Obituary.

The sincere sympathy of the public is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Greaney, of Temple Athea, on the death of their daughter, Miss Maryanne Greaney, which occurred on the 9th inst., after a lingering illness. The deceased young woman led a most exemplary life and her passing is certain to leave a void in the family circle which will endure for many a long day to come. The family is one of the most popular in the district and the respectful condolence of the people is offered, not only to the parents, but also to the brothers and sisters of the dead girl, both at home and abroad, on the loss which they have suffered by her demise.

Another Death.

Another regretted death which has occurred in the parish is that of poor Jeremiah Quill, of Gortnagros, at a fairly advanced age. For nearly three-quarters of a century the deceased was a familiar figure in the district, where he was liked by every body for his simple, unobtrusive manner and well-natured disposition. He was a native speaker of Irish, which, in spite of long disuse, he spoke fluently. This was due to the fact that his childhood and early boyhood had been passed with a grandmother, who only knew Gaelic. It may be interesting to mention that the family are said to be one of the oldest in the entire district. To the relatives and friends of the deceased, the sincere sympathy of young and old is offered in connection with this sad event.

Turf-Cutting.

It has been suggested in certain outside quarters that turf-cutting should commence this year at a much earlier date than has been the case during previous seasons. It is alleged—rightly or wrongly—that the Co. Council is altogether in favour of this procedure. Those

Things That

Some very happy news from a meeting in Limerick on the part of the Trade Branch of St. James. Particularly pleasing on account of the practical and useful address by Father Treacy, C.S.S.R., Mount Carmel, Carroll, Adm., St. Michael's, who emphasized that, no matter how many complaints in some respects, the work of the remarkably fine work of the Catholic missions abroad.

They heard a lot of news from the dogs—and the matter, particularly—said Father Treacy, "the fine things Ireland will do in time." No country, he
