vas given by Phelan, who gave no Bohemians-N. Donnelly, F. Mccope whatever to Ward, and took Namara, S. Higgins, T. O'Neill, W. major hand in tieing the Gate's Cody, J. D. Torrens, H. McNeice, F. ront rankers into veritable knots. Dante, G. Dixon, M. O'Connor, C. O'Brien, G. Gallivan, S. Hall, D. B. up Signings. O'Malley, F. Murray. A good stroke of business was Instonians—C. Madden, M. Walsh, erformed by the Limerick Club in C. Micks, D. Lawlor, D. Madden, D. ecuring Tim O'Keeffe, ex-Waterford Cowhey, M. J. McGuire, P. Doherty, nternational left winger, for the C. O'Brien, M. Toomey, A. Hanley, But they luration of the cup. D. Begg, B. Stack, J. O'Dwyer, M. dlowed Coad to slip from their Kavanagh. rasp. Apparently the club must Garryowen-R. Howlett, J. Finuhave taken it for granted that Coad cane. J. Cregan. was as good as booked when the O'Dwyer, P. Reid, J. player's signature endorsed one of O'Dwyer, J. O'Donnell, M. Butler, registration forms. Yet, heir J. Cantrell, R. Laffan, H. Culhane, eventually, the more orthodox over-J. Flaherty, P. O'Sullivan. ures of Shamrock Rovers came out on top, when their club representa-ACCUSED MAN ive was thorough in his plans and made personal contact with Coad, who both contracted a mutual agreement. Certainly this player would be an asset to Limerick, but he cannot be written down as a match The case of Lawrence O'Connor. winner like O'Keeffe. Limerick can charged with the murder of James thank their stars that the latter is Collins, at Abbeyfeale East on 24th December last, was again before with them, for I am in a position to Mr. Kenny at Abbeyfeale Court on know that they were slow to make Wednesday, when Supt. Mulcahy, a deal. O'Keeffe promised a few in a deposition, stated that he was friends here, outside of the club, informed by the Governor of Limethat he would sign for Limerick, rick Prison that the accused was and despite most tempting offers certified insane and insistent persuasion by other Kelly and unfit to attend court. clubs he fulfilled his verbal obligation. His decision to assist has created popular feeling in Waterford, where soccerites are anxious to see Limerick make a bid for the big trophy. A Star Forward. Team building operations will be accelerated during the coming week, when the club will explore every avenue in their quest to find two accused. first-class inside forwards. were after Couser last week, and DANCE PROCEEDS FOR are still after him. The main point has not been reached, however, that of getting the player to put the pen to paper. If he does Limerick can boast of putting one across Glentoran and Linfield, who are "hot" in pursuit of his services. Such a happening is quite unlikely. From the reports I have heard, Couser is a first-class inside left, and starred with Bangor no later than last Saturday, when his team scored a Daly's case a transfer 7-0 success in the Irish Cup. If Glentoran, who can actually call on any club. the pick of Belfast, are keen to secure him, then obviously he must be the "goods." If Limerick's inducement succeeded, what a star partner he would make for O'Keeffe. On the opposite wing Robinson is me ter. expected to re-appear, and definite news in this connection is awaited with interest.

e classed as one of the best backs Skehan, Sergt. Carr, Pte. Moloney, Pte. McInerney, Lieut. Griffin.

CERTIFIED

n the match. A fine performance the Savoy in "Lady Hamilt Mr. Kenny, granting the remand, said he would like to know the here again her startling b expected to make screen hi she portrays a woman whos and fascination made her a queen. Mr. McAuley, solr., appeared for first Alexander Korda and he

by Dr.

C.

Carey.

INSANE

Nestor, P.

& Co., Ltd., for the proceeds of their first annual dance, which amounted to £60 16s. 11d.

Nelson, played by Laurence had upon it. The story of opens in Naples, whithe Hamilton has been sent or

Roche-

needed as he had not played for

"Lady Hamilton"

THE SAVOY

-or even approach—that black-haired Vivien Leigh. ection from comparative of to play the role of Scarlet in "Gone With The Wind"

Rogers.

aviation

film

Enemy spies, a dare-dev and a girl, provide plenty of

in Pathe's "Emergency La which comes on Thursday.

Tucker plays the pilot who control invention makes target for desperate men to get hold of his plans. This

Hughes and Evelyn Brent

Baris Karloff, who in this appears in the dual role monster are and half-mad

While trying to find a cur disease Dr. Adrian disco-amazing secret. From that astounding tale that bring close one of the most fas double-feature offerings ev sented at the Carlton. In supporting cast Maris Wrix a fine performance.

continues

support is "The Ape," spectacle

stars

to

" 1

111

product

Admira

Cooper

international sensation. As

With The Wind has not screened in this country, he Bridge" will best be reme

She will be seen all next

Hollywood

on his cast the recently

Vivien Leigh and Laurence

The story concerns the spe career of Lady Emma H played by Vivien Leigh, which

tive performance

In all the annals of Ho there has been no career to

He applied for a further remand to Adare Court on Wednesday, 24th inst.

view of the Attorney-General for the next Court. Supt. Mulcahy said he would endeavour to ascertain that.

The County Committee of the Limerick Red Cross Society wish to thank the staff of Messrs, Cannock whom it is alleged was ineligible. The F.A. are investigating the

RED CROSS

Was

There may be a sequel to the "Gate" v. Limerick match over a c riain payer on the home team influence

When she discovers the i pose of the visit she capit fixed-up and the two last menit by becoming the channel tioned transferred to Limerick. In munication between the C Naples and the British Am an well as the means of do service to Nelson. Apart thrilling sequences of th of Trafalgar, the film, is produced. Among the ou sots created for the pictur of the magnificent building British Embassy at Naple

Caledoniana team from-O. Brown; Lady Hamilton's career th D. Quin'ivan and K. O'Callaghan; cart includes Alan Mowbi A N Other, M. Henry, K. McNulty, Atterod. Gladvs