PASSES AWAY AT CULLEN

The news of the death of Mr. Patrick Quinlan, farmer and shop-keeper, Cullen, on Thursday, was received with the keenest regret throughout East Limerick and Tipperary district. A comparatively young man, deceased was son of the late Mr. Denis Quinlan, Cullen, who was for many years a prominent Nationalist and a member of Tipperary Board of Guardians and No. 1 Rural District Council. The late Mr. Patrick Quinlan was nephew of Mr. Michael Quinlan, Reask, Co. Limerick, who was also for many years a member of Tipperary Board of Guardians, Chairman of No. 2 Rural District Council, and a member of Limerick County Council.

Deep sympathy is felt for the deceased's wife and family in their bereavement.

There was a large attendance at the interment in the family burial ground at Gola to-day (Friday).
