MR. PATRICK O'SHAUGHNESSY, CARHUBANEMORE.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Patrick O'Shaughnessy, Carhubanemore, Loughill, which took place at his residence on Monday night, 12th January. Deceased had reached a fine old age and enjoyed good health practically up to the last. He was a very well liked man, who was widely known in farming circles, as he carried on this business on an extensive scale. His funeral bore eloquent testimony to the widespread sympathy with his family on the loss they have sustained. On Tuesday evening the remains were taken to Loughill Church, where the Rosary was recited by the parish clerk, Mr. T. McNamara. Requiem Mass was celebrated next morning by Rev. Father McDonnell, C.C.

The funeral took place at noon to family burial ground at Loughill. The officiating clergy were:—Rev. Father Ryan, P.P., V.F.; Rev. Father McDonnell, C.C., and Very Rev. Canon O'Carroll, P.P., Glin.

The chief mourners were:—Mrs. O'Shaughnessy (widow), Michael and Patrick O'Shaughnessy (sons), Mary O'Shaughnessy (daughter), Mrs. Greta O'Shaughnessy (daughter-in-law), Mrs. J. Houlihan (sister-in-law).

Young fresh ewes fair trade; old and heavy ewes lower rates. Store hoggets short supply, not in demand. Useful sheep looked for. Round trade not as brisk as last week, buyers operating more cautiously. Business finished up fairly well, with a good clearance effected. WEEKLY DAIRY MARKET.

Tuesday, January 20th—Full seasonable entry, average description with a good number of useful cows and heifers; really choice cows a scarce. A representative attendance, out to invest; no hesitation in bidding for the right class which met a strong and firm demand. Medium-sized, promising cows and heifers freely bid for, and drew keen competition, and unless for some lots of a secondary class proceedings had a good swing. Rates round recent currencies. The tone of business not quite as steady all round as last week, caused by lack of evenness in class; some secondary cows and heifers did not attract attention. Over the day satisfactory turnover and good clearance. Mrs. Leonard, Roselawn, Castletroy, topped the market at £40. Choice cows, £30 10s. to £40; promising, £23 10s. to £26; ordinary, £14 to £19; in-calf heifer promising, £23 10s. to £29; ordinary £19 10s. to £23.—Wm. B. Fitt and Co., Auctioneers.
